Berean Church hosts biblical astronomy event

People will have the chance to get a unique perspective on the stars in the sky this weekend.

Colby Berean Church is hosting a Home School Astronomy Seminar at 7 p.m. Thursday at the church, 1000 S. Franklin Ave. and a follow-up session at 7 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 9 at the church.

Ronda Tibbles said Jim Burr, founder of Jim's Mobile, Inc. of Lakewood, Colo. will put on the show.

"It's a presentation on the heavens and the stars from a Christian point of view," she said.

It will feature photos and relevant Biblical passages and will allow people to learn how the constellations tell the story of salvation.

"Jim Burr is recognized throughout the world for his achievements in telescope designs and manufacture of the NGT series telescope," Tibbles said.

The astronomy space show is an introduction to astronomy from a Biblical perspective and is broadcast in 45 countries by satellite.

The seminar is open to the public. Prior registration would be helpful due to limited seating.

The cost is $15 for a family fee for both nights.

Tibbles said anyone with a telescope can bring it and people who would like to help with telescopes are also welcome.

For information, call Tibbles at 460-2611 or contact Bryn Quenzer at 694-2627, Debbie Frasier at 852-4837 or Robin Rains at 899-3755.

Colby College plans one-act comedies during November

The Colby Community College Drama Department will present two one-act comedies, Julianne Bernstein's Pizza: A Love Story and Elaine May's Hotline on Nov. 13, 14, and 15 starting at 7:30 p.m.

"Pizza: A Love Story is a hilarious comedy set in Jeffrey's apartment on the night he plans to propose marriage to Janet," said Deb Bickner, director.

"When Janet finds the ring, she isn't sure what to do, so she orders a pizza to kill time. With the pizza delivery guy and Janet's sister showing up, Jeffrey isn't sure exactly what is going on. A late appearance by the police only adds to the fun," she said.

Hotline is an edgy comedy set in a suicide telephone center and in the apartment of Dorothy, a potential suicide. Ken is on his first night as a suicide Hotline counselor; he has no idea what he is getting into when he answers Dorothy's call for help! After she hangs up on him, Ken is willing to do anything to save Dorothy's life. His efforts are both thwarted and helped by his co-worker, his boss and the police.

"If these plays were rated like movies, Pizza: A Love Story would be rate PG and Hotline would be rates PG13; both ratings are because of language," said Bickner. "There is nothing in these plays that I would be uncomfortable with my own children seeing, but parents of young children may wish to find out more information before bringing children to watch Hotline.

For information, call Bickner at 462-3984, ext. 300.

The cast for Pizza: A Love Story includes Greg Pollmann (Stratton, Be.) as Jeffrey, Jenn Wilson (Colby) as Janet, Kayla Williams (Goodland) as Rita, Andrew Atkisson (Colby) as Rick and Angela Carriker (Atwood) as the Officer. The cast for Hotline includes David Zordel (Ransom) as Ken, Sadie Gleason (Wright) as Dr. Russell, Jessica Spoo (Frankfort) as Marty, Amber Staats (Colby) as Dorothy and Kayla Fisher (Plainville) as the Delivery Person. Assistant director for "Hotline" is Randy Liberda (Hallein, Austria).

Production crew members for both plays are Anthony Anderson (Alma, Neb.) stage manager, Jami Moulton (Alma, Neb.) lights, Samantha Miller (Colby) sound, Derrick Bailey (Colby), Drew Lambert (McCook, Neb.) Sara McDonald (WaKeeney), Gene Carriker (Atwood) and Andrew Carriker (Atwood) backstage crew.

Other students involved include Destiny Lalicker (Goodland) costumes, D.J. Langdon (Leoti) properties, David Zordel (Ransom) sound CD's and Peggy Howard (Colby) box office.

Advance tickets are available at the college bookstore. Admission is $4 for adults, $3 for senior and non-college student. There is no charge for college faculty, staff and students.
