of the Kansas prisons and jails with the gospel of Jesus Christ. Rev. Bevard, along with volunteers, travel to Kansas prisons to hold services. For those who would like to hear what God is doing in the prisons of Kansas with this dynamic ministry, plan to attend, and see how others can be a part of these events.

DR. RALPH H. JAIN

Ralph Hiram Jain was born September 20, 1908, near Waldo, Russell County, Kansas. He was the first child of Mr. & Mrs. W. B. Jain. He passed away on January 16, 2004, at Prairie Senior Living Center, Colby, Kansas.

Ralph spent his childhood in Luray, Kansas, area. A younger brother, Lewis Lester, died of pneumonia at the age of 4 1/2 in 1915.

Ralph attended eight years of grade school while living with his grandparents from the age of 3. Rather than quit school after completing grade school, he worked for board and room with the George Daniels' family and completed two years of high school in Luray, Kansas. His junior year of high school was at Lenora, Kansas, and his senior year was at Colby Community High School, Colby, Kansas, graduating with the class of 1926.

Upon graduation from high school, Ralph worked for Mr. J.P. Phillips at the Colby Free Press Tribune and the Lyric movie theatre. During this time he learned linotype and printing operations. In 1927, Ralph worked for E. J. Rose Manufacturing Company in Los Angeles, California, building medical electronic equipment.

He returned to Colby in the fall of 1928, and worked again for Mr. Phillips. He helped install and operate projection and sound equipment for Colby's first "talking" movie picture.

In the fall of 1929, Ralph entered the Kirksville College of Osteopathy & Surgery at Kirksville, Missouri. During his senior year, he served as lecturing instructor in the anatomy department and taught anatomy and physiology at the Laughlin School of Nursing in Kirksville. While an instructor there, he met a very important student: Ada L. Foster.

Ralph and Ada were married in Iowa on June 6, 1933. Ralph was graduated from Kirksville College of Osteopathy & Surgery in 1933, and received his license to practice in Kansas after writing the Kansas State Board of Osteopathy examinations in 1934.

In February 1934, Dr. & Mrs. Jain moved to Colby, Kansas, to make their home and to establish a general practice of Osteopathic Medicine & Surgery.

They also home-delivered many babies in the area in the early years of practice since this was the time before Colby had a hospital.

In its 1956-1957 session, the Kansas Legislature revised and updated its examination and licensing procedure for practitioners of the healing arts by establishing the Kansas State Board of Healing arts to give the examinations and issue licenses to both D.O.'s and M.D.'s applying to practice in Kansas. Under this law, Dr. Jain voluntarily took the examination and on December 12, 1957, received his new, updated license to continue to practice medicine and surgery.

Dr. Jain retired from his practice in 1976, after 41 1/2 years in the same office location above what was then the Farmers and Merchants State Bank on Franklin Avenue in Colby.

His hobbies and interests included photography and amateur radio. Dr. and Mrs. Jain took and printed many pictures of important events in and around Colby and for the Colby school system. He also served the community with his amateur radio services helping to maintain communications in times of adverse weather conditions and relaying messages to and from families of military members.

Ralph loved his Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, and spoke lovingly of him through years to those around him in his office and church.

Ralph was preceded in death by his wife, Ada, on July 12, 1996; his parents, brother, and two granddaughters.

After Ada passed away, Ralph moved to the farm home of Jerry & Rebecca Kersenbrock north of Colby. He spent 3 1/2 years involved with this family and enjoying visits with children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

In January 2000, after a serious illness, Ralph entered Prairie Senior Living Center. He remained at home there for his remaining years. As his need-of-care increased and his abilities decreased, this extended "family" of providers cared for him with love and compassion. They all surrounded him with much affection and love, and even more so in his last days before he was called to his final home. His family greatly appreciates the loving care they gave to him and thanks each member of all departments of this facility.

He is survived by three children: Mr. & Mrs. Gilbert A. Jain of Norman, Oklahoma; Mr. & Mrs. Carl E. Wood (Martha) of Great Falls, Montana; and Mr. & Mrs. Jerry Kersenbrock (Rebecca) of Colby, Kansas.

Grandchildren are Mr. & Mrs. Michael H. Jain of Norman, Oklahoma; Miss Cynthia L. Jain of Norman, Oklahoma; Mr. & Mrs. Steve Bell of Great Falls, Montana; Mr. & Mrs. Bill Jones of Littleton, Colorado; Mr. & Mrs. Brian Wood of Murrieta, California; Mr. & Mrs. Cory Kersenbrock of Ellsworth, Kansas; Mr. & Mrs. Glenn Parrett of Elizabethtown, Kentucky; Mr. David Kersenbrock of Colby, Kansas; Mr. & Mrs. Dan O'Brien of Colby, Kansas; and Mr. Jeremy Kersenbrock and his fiancé, Amber Voigt, of Colby, Kansas.

Great-grandsons are Aaron Bell, Matthew Bell, Jonathon Bell, Robert Jones, Philip Jones, Caleb Kersenbrock, John O'Brien, Brock O'Brien, and Luke O'Brien. Great-granddaughters are Ashley Jain, Lyndsay Jain, Sarah Jones, Kelissa Kersenbrock, Krista Parrett, Shayleen Parrett, and Cosette O'Brien.

Funeral services are conducted at Kersenbrock Funeral Chapel on Wednesday, January 21, 2004 at 10:00 a.m. with Pastor Lane Purcell of the Rexford Community Church officiating. Pall Bearers were Cory Kersenbrock, David Kersenbrock; Jeremy Kersenbrock; Michael Jain; Brian Wood and Dan O'Brian. Music is provided by Jolene Hansen.

Burial will be in the Beulah Cemetery, Thomas County, Colby, Kansas. Visitation will be January 20, 2004, Tuesday 9 a.m.-9 p.m. at Kersenbrock Funeral Chapel, Colby, Kansas.

The Memorial goes to Prairie Senior Living Complex - Donations may be left at Kersenbrock Funeral Chapel - Colby, KS.

Kansans for Life upset over Republican disclaimer

HUTCHINSON (AP) — A recent Republican mailing about the upcoming Kansas Day activities has upset some members of the anti-abortion group Kansans for Life.

The calendar for the party's Kansas Day activities Jan. 30 and 31 in Topeka listed the Kansans for Life's breakfast to be held in the convention hotel Jan. 31.

But that listing also included this disclaimer:

"The positions, opinions and views of Kansans for Life are not necessarily those of the Republican Party of Kansas.

The presence of Kansans for Life at this event shall not be misconstrued as an endorsement of Kansans for Life or its single-issue agenda."

Dennis Jones, chairman of the Republican Party of Kansas, said he wrote the disclaimer because he didn't think it was appropriate for an outside organization to schedule an event that competes with the party's gathering.

He said Kansans for Life intentionally schedules its breakfast about the same time the party holds a breakfast in the same hotel to honor party officers and volunteers at the county level.

"Those officers and volunteers are the heart and soul and lifeblood of the Republican party," Jones said.
