Doctor's advice might be needed for colds, flu

Seems like there have been lots of people needing doctoring and we are glad there are doctors or health care givers in our local areas to provide the services we need. I've had lots of "attention" paid to me lately and I'm very grateful for the help and relief it has provided. It's always a little hard to realize you aren't going to be 'as good as new again', but that doesn't mean we half to wait until we're half dead before we seek help. So all you folks that have been doctoring those colds and such for so long without relief, maybe it is time to search out some professional advice. I know the Lord heals, and I believe He provides the healing touch to those that work in the offices and clinics and hospitals as well as those that work on their knees, so to speak.

Some of the doctoring has included surgeries and we want to wish those people a quick return to health. One in particular is a little 8-year-old named Haylee that lives in Oakley. She is recuperating from having her appendix removed last week and all reports make it sound like she is doing great. Roger took her grandma down to Hays on Thursday to visit her and they made the acquaintance of another little 6-year-old that had surgery earlier for the same thing. Some of the local folks that have had surgery are Muriel Palmgren, who is recovering at Lantern Park in Colby; Jean Hutton, who is doing very well in Denver; Willard Moore, who is now home after a few days in Hays for surgery. Others that have not had surgery but still have some health issues are Wanda Fulwider from pneumonia; Don and Wilma Horney and Ruth and Duane Jones, all of Brewster and all recovering from major colds; Judy Reid has her voice back, which the aerobic ladies say is a mixed blessing—just kidding Judy! Anyway, it seems there
