Trojan baseball picks up two road victories

Colby @ Air Force JV
Wednesday

Game 1 — Colby 13, AF JV 3

The Trojans scored 13 runs on 13 hits on way to a victory in game one at Colorado Springs on Wednesday. The game was tied 3-3 entering the fifth when the Trojans exploded for 8 runs on seven hits.

The inning was highlighted by sophomore Dan McClure's two-run triple to the left center gap, which came after freshman Josh Hunter's single plated the go-ahead run.

Right-handed freshman Braden Ham pitched five complete, striking out two before freshmen T.R. Keating and Matt Dudley combined to close out the game.

Also adding to the offensive effort were sophomores Joul Gould and Brian Hassing, each with two hits and a double, and freshman Mike Neuberg, also with two hits.

Game 2 — Colby 13, AF JV 1

The Trojans did not wait as long in game two to unleash the offense as 12 runs in the second and third was all they needed for the victory.

Sophomore Cole Armstrong opened the flood gates with a 3-run double in the second after a single by freshman Ben Schmidt, a walk by Josh Hunter, a sacrifice bunt by sophomore Jared Lambertson and a walk by Dan McClure loaded the bases.

McClure, Gould and Schmidt each had two hits and two rbi's

The Trojans' next action will be Saturday in Colby against Arapahoe Community College at 1 p.m.

Then on Sunday they will hit the trail for Sterling, Colo. where they will go up against Northeastern Junior College.
