

Scholarship applications available

Scholarships and information from many schools and programs is available at the Colby High School Career Center. Below is a list of scholarships and other information available at the center for students.

— Kansas State University Phi Gamma Delta is in search of a recipient for their Steven Balderson Leadership Scholarship. Pi Gamma Delta will reward the $400 scholarship to an incoming male student. Applications are available at the Colby High School Career Center and must be postmarked by Wednesday, March 24.

— K-State “For Sophomores Only” is two days of events for sophomores and their parents April 2 and 3. Reservation deadline is Friday, March 26. Reservation forms are available at the Colby High School Career Center or by calling 1-800-600-ALUM.

— Colorado State University in Fort Collins, Colo. has visit days set aside for juniors, including March 26, April 5 and 12. For information, visit <http://admissions.colostate.edu>.

— New England Culinary Institute, one of the world’s finest culinary schools, is offering 10 $5,000 scholarships on each of their two campuses in Vermont for the June and Dec. 2004 enrollments. Students must apply by March 30 for Dec. 2, 2004 enrollment.

Applications can be obtained at the career center or online at www.neci.edu.

— NFIB Education Foundation has a scholarship available. The award recognizes young people who have demonstrated entrepreneurial spirit and initiative.

One hundred students nationwide will receive a $1,000 scholarship. Applications will be accepted until Wednesday, March 31. Applications can be picked up at the Career Center or by going to www.nfib.com/education.

— The Highland Community College football program is looking for several responsible individuals who would be able to help with various duties involved during the day and practice session activities.

They can offer individuals a scholarship to cover the cost of their books and tuition for the 2004-2005 academic year.

Applications can be picked up at the Colby High School Career Center or by calling (785) 442-6045.
