We just returned from an Agri-Colby Community College April 1; tourism Conference in Hays sponsored by the Travel and Tourism Development Division of the Department of Commerce.

Agritourism is receiving a great deal of attention by the department this year.

If you think of Agritourism only as having a "city slicker" jump aboard a combine with you and going for a ride, you do not have the big picture. The best definition is value-added agriculture providing opportunities or experiences that one cannot see or do in the city or urban area.

There is a huge demand for these kinds of opportunities.

Community Building at 6 p.m. on Agritourism includes outdoor Show from Branson is scheduled at recreation such as fishing and hunting, demonstrations such as flour milling or cattle roping or branding; shops and foods such as wineries. ties taking place this month. Don't ice cream stands or kettle corn; enforget there are also softball and tertainment and children's activities such as pick your own fruit and produce or corn mazes or pumpkin patches; classes and workshops; unique lodging; festivals, fairs and special activities.

> As you can see the list becomes very, very long and this is just a

"teaser" of the possibilities.

The legislature is in the process of trying to pass a limited liability law which would make hosting an agritourism activity or event more feasible for a farm operation.

We are trying to inventory our areas at the present time for businesses or activities already in opera-

If you are interested in a complete inventory or have an activity, please let us know.

The state is very interested in a complete inventory and connecting the Colby Convention and Visitors Bureau and producers together. It is a win-win for all. If you have questions, please give me a call at 460-7643. I will be happy to visit with
