Lady Eagles open with two wins

The Colby High School varsity softball girls opened their season with two wins, 17-9 vs. Russell and 11-9 vs. Scott City at Scott City on Tuesday.

Sara Redmond got the wins in game one and Cierra Rous the win in game two.

Redmond allowed 11 hits, 4 strikeouts and 4 walks. Rous allowed 11 hits, 4 strikeouts and 0 walks.

Getting hits on the day for the Eagles were:

Whitney Adams, 8-10 (2 doubles); Shauna Cox, 7-10 (2 doubles); Jen Hutfles, 7-10 (2 doubles, 1 triple); Steph Wieland, 6-10 (double); Redmond, 4-9 (3 doubles); Crystal Herschberger, 3-5; Savannah Rupp, 2-6 (triple); Katie Friesen, 2-3; Rous, 1-7; Ivy Ramsey, 1-5; Cyndi Cox, 0-2; Lauren Cox, 0-1; and Sheena Brown, 0-0.

Coach's comment: As a team, the Eagles hit .530 (41-78) which is super for their first night. Redmond and Rous both pitched decent and will get stronger as the season goes on.

"Our defense was poor at best. We committed 9 errors in the two games and must get better to win games against stronger teams.

"The varsity travels to Syracuse today for two games.

"Jayvee split on Tuesday, losing to Russell, 10-0 and then turning around to beat Scott City by a score of 17.5."

games at Ulysses scheduled for this date have been moved to Friday, April 30, 4 p.m.

An amazing comeback for Trojan baseball vs. Pratt

Wednesday Pratt @ Colby

The Colby Community College baseball Trojans came from behind to win an amazing game in the second half of the double dip Wednesday.

Bur first...

Game 1 - Colby 1, Pratt 7

Pratt did all the little things right in game one, as the Trojans could not put the defense or the offense together to stop the Beavers. The lone bright spot for the Trojans came in the fourth inning when sophomore outfielder Dan McClure's line drive to the right field fence became an inside the park home run. Officially scored a triple, the relay throw to third base slipped past the Beaver defense and the swift McClure was able to trot home. Unfortunately that was all the scoring the Trojans could muster against Pratt's Brian Beardon, who pitched an outstanding game for the Beaver's striking out six while scattering five hits.

Now, here's where it gets interesting...

Game 2 - Colby 4, Pratt 3

Game two was moving just fine for the Trojans until the seventh inning when both players and fans experienced every emotion possible.

The Trojans held a 2-0 lead going into the seventh inning on the strength of a first inning RBI single by sophomore right fielder Joel Gould and a fifth inning error by the Beavers that allowed a Trojan run.

With two outs in the top of the seventh, the Beavers managed to get runners on first and second by way of a base hit and a hit batsman, which brought to the plate the go-ahead run. Then the unthinkable happened as the first pitch to the fifth batter of the inning found its way over the left field fence for a 3-2 Beaver lead. The stiff breeze blowing in from left made a home run in that direction seem improbable.

The Trojans did not stay down for long as they mounted a rally of their own in the bottom of the inning. Sophomore shortstop Cole Armstrong's infield hit with one out gave the Trojans a glimmer of hope. Freshman third baseman A.J. Steele followed with a line drive single to left. The table was set for sophomore first baseman Brian Hassing.

Hassing, who stepped to the plate, and then shrewdly called time out, hit the first pitch he saw to the right center gap. The ball found its way past the Beaver outfielders and to the fence scoring Armstrong easily and giving Steele the opportunity to score the winning run to complete one of the craziest innings, and games, in recent memory.

Freshman right-hander Koby McCall earned the victory going seven complete, striking out six and walking just two.

The Trojans are now 11-16 on the season and 5-5 in conference. Saturday they travel to Garden City and Sunday Barton County comes to Colby.

Both doubleheaders start at 1 p.m.
