The Colby Community College Trojans had an up and down pair of double-headers on Tuesday and Wednesday. They went into Sterling, (Colo.) on Tuesday and played solid ball to pick up a pair of victories.

In game one freshman right-hander Braden Ham recorded his third victory of the season and freshman closer Travis Hearne earned his seventh save of the season. Sophomore first baseman Brian Hassing led the offensive at-tack going 2 for 4 with a three-run double in the fourth inning that broke the game open. He also had an RBI single in the third.

Sophomore third baseman Nick Krick started the Trojan scoring in the second inning with an RBI double. Sophomore second baseman Jared Lambertson also contributed going 2 for 3 with a double and two runs scored.

In game two the Trojans got a great pitching effort by freshman righty Dan Neal who picked up his third straight victory. Neal went the distance striking out eight while scattering four hits. He is now 4-1 on the season.

The Trojans attacked early with a four-run second inning high-lighted by a bases loaded double by center fielder Dan McClure. McClure also had a two-run home run in the fifth to finish 3 for 5 with five RBI's. Shortstop Cole Armstrong, right fielder Joel Gould and second baseman Russell Coates each had two hits.

Wednesday was a different story for the Trojans. Many of the things that went right Tuesday, went wrong Wednesday as they dropped a pair of games to Hutchinson.

Despite some timely hitting, the Trojans could not come up with the defensive plays they needed in either game.

Catcher Kyle Sandusky, left fielder Ben Schmidt and Nick Krick each went 2 for 3. Krick once again had a big hit with a two-run single in the fourth that tied the score at three apiece. Krick's single came after a Ben Schmidt RBI double that started the Trojan rally.

The tie didn't last long as the Blue Dragons answered with five runs in the top of the fifth with two outs to gain a lead that they did not relinquish.

In game two the Trojans held a 3-2 lead after three innings, but could not hold on for the victory. Cole Armstrong and Joel Gould each had two hits. Gould and Brian Hassing each knocked RBI doubles.

The Trojans are now 17-20 overall and 9-9 in conference. Their next action is Saturday at Dodge City. Sunday Butler County comes to Colby for a 1 p.m. double-header.
