

Colby group plans fundraising event, recognize new project

Big Brothers Big Sisters Celebrates National Volunteer Week with New "Pass It On" Program.

In addition to celebrating National Volunteer Week (April 18-24), volunteers for Big Brothers Big Sisters across Kansas are encouraging outdoor enthusiasts who want to share their love of the outdoors with children to become mentors in a newly initiated program.

As part of the local activities, the Big Brothers Big Sister organization in Colby has planned "Bowl for Kids Sake," which begins Friday and continues on Saturday at Colby Bowl.

Along with Colby's chapter celebrating the week with the fundraiser, the statewide group also wanted to introduce a new program called, Pass It On, said Mike Christensen, director of the project.

This program teaches youth traditional outdoors sports - such as archery, fishing and hunting - by pairing them with adults who also enjoy these activities.

It has grown rapidly and is already offered through Big Brothers Big Sisters chapters in Kansas, Texas and Pennsylvania.

Big Brothers Big Sisters agencies in 10 more states are expected to adopt the program in the coming months.

"So many of our youngsters ask to participate in outdoor activities, but it was difficult to find knowledgeable adults to mentor them" Christensen said.

"By recruiting volunteers with these skills, we can give the children access to the outdoor sports that they want, while at the same time reaching out to a group that may not have known had the opportunity to translate their outdoor skills into useful volunteer opportunities."

As part of national Volunteer Week, Big Brothers Big Sisters is encouraging conservation groups to become involved with the program, too.

"We also encourage outdoor enthusiasts and members of conservation groups to become 'Bigs' and help pass along to the 'Littles' an appreciation of the outdoors," Christensen said.

The program recently received a $250,000 gift from the National Shooting Sports Foundation to expand the Pass It On program across the country.

"In fact, we so strongly believe in the value of this program and the benefits it brings to children that we have made a concrete investment toward the program's future."

Through the Pass it On program, boys and girls are matched with mentors who provide them with positive experiences and a unique opportunity to build respect for the outdoors.

Big Brothers Big Sisters helps boys and girls, most of whom are considered at risk and live in single-parent homes, achieve their full potential through long-term personal relationships with carefully screened and caring volunteers.

Sausage gravy biscuit feed Saturday to help students

The Rexford Lions Club has planned a fundraising activity from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Rexford Community Hall to benefit two students at Golden Plains High School, said Delores Dible, one of the organizers.

"Kristin Wark will be going to Mexico on a Spanish class trip and Valerie Broeckleman will be going to the Lions State and International Band competition," she said. Earlier this week, Zula Hori-nek, correspondent, talked about another event happening Friday and continuing through Saturday.

She said there will be a city-wide cleanup and everyone is encouraged to take part.

On Friday, a trailer will be at the city building for junk, old furniture and some appliances. Any appliance using freon will not be taken.

For those who need help loading items up for disposal, Hori-nek said they should call either Bill Scott or Darren Dible.

On Saturday, cleanup efforts will focus on picking brush, tree limbs and other items in sprucing up the area.

Fairview resident returns home after visit

We are very happy to have Vida Toburen back with us here at Fairview. Her son and wife, Nelson and Helen Toburen of Pittsburg brought her back home last week.

Amy McCarty from the Farmers and Merchants Bank called the numbers for the bingo games Wednesday afternoon. Everyone present received one or more prizes. Thank you, Amy.

Guests of Pete Morrison this week were his son and wife, John and Judy Morrison from Algon-

Lula Thielor

- Fairview Estates

quin, Ill., which is near Chicago. They also went to Dighton to attend the funeral of Maurice O'Brien, the husband of Judy's sister on Thursday.

Janice Hanna of Florida is here visiting her mother, Dorothy Crabb, and her sister, Jean Herbel. Dorothy celebrated her birthday last week.

It was a great treat to have the Oberlin High School students present their musical program for us here at Fairview.

They were in Colby for the statewide music festival held on Thursday. They have a large group of young people who did an outstanding job, we thought. We thank them very much for sharing their talents with us.

Howard and Phil Lahman of Oberlin visited Emerson Lahman on Friday afternoon.

Thursday afternoon JoAnne Sunderman reviewed the book "The President's House 1800 to the Present" by Margaret Truman. It was a good story of the families who lived there and some of the visitors as well as the history of the place. JoAnne told it in such an interesting way that we felt like we had been there. Thank you, JoAnne, very much.

Colby College art gallery features works of art club members

The featured artists for April at the Colby Community College Art Gallery are High Plains Art Club members Jo Bricker, Marj Brown, Marlene Carpenter, Margaret Denneler, Bev Kern, Fritz Ostmeyer and Lillie Plummer.

The following information about each of the artists was compiled by Debbie Schwanke, public information officer at the college.

Bricker, a self-taught artist, has attended numerous area painting workshops.

She prefers to paint with acrylics and has completed many landscapes.

Brown studied art at Colby Community College with Cal Mahin, Tom Currey and Kenneth Mitchell. She assisted Mitchell with the mural at Bedker Memorial Complex and donated her time to paint a mural at Prairie Senior Living Center.

She worked at Prairie Printers in Colby for 12 years as an illustrator for books and advertisements before becoming a reporter. She enjoys doing works of art featuring people and animals.

Carpenter studied art at Colby College with Cathy Gordon, Ron Brunner and Mitchell. She also assisted with the Bedker and Prairie Senior Center murals.

She is well-known in northwest

Kansas for her sunflower oil paintings.

She is currently working on a series of butterfly paintings. Carpenter was one of the 12 northwest Kansas artists selected to decorate a chair for the PBS television auction last year and is decorating a table for this year's auction.

Denneler studied art with Mitchell and also assisted with the mural paintings in Bedker and at Prairie Senior Living Center. She prefers to paint in oil and particularly enjoys doing landscapes.

Kern studied art at Colby College with Mitchell and assisted him with the mural in Bedker. She paints in several medias but prefers oil landscapes.

Ostmeyer, who also worked on the murals in Bedker and at the Prairie Senior Center, studied with Mitchell. She teaches oil painting at the Senior Progress Center. She paints in several medias but prefers oil landscapes.

Plummer prefers to work in oil and enjoys all types of scenes, landscapes, still-life and people. She also studied art with Mitchell at Colby College.

The public is invited to view the artists' works. There is no admission charge.

The Colby Community College Gallery is open Monday through Friday from 1-5 p.m.

Groups may make special arrangements for other times by calling Gordon at 462-3984, ext. 310.

After 5 Club to host dinner party; moms, daughters invited

The High Plains After 5 Club will host a dinner party with the theme of "Me and My Shadow" from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, May 1 at the Colby Community College Student Union in Colby.

The brunch buffet will be $7.75 and the event will feature "Mother-

Daughter Craft Ideas" by Carolyn Richards, owner of The Craft Peddler, who will give ideas on creative and fun projects for mothers and daughters to do together.

Music will be "Music! Music! Music!" by Halye and Sydne Hollis who will entertain the group with a medley of songs.

To top off the dinner party, Kristie Davison from Paxton, Neb. will sing.

Guest speaker is Pam Walker, who will speak on "A Mother's Wisdom."

Reservations and cancellations must be received by Friday and are available by calling Carol Bohme at 462-2791; Janis Baken at 672-3809; Deb Stepper at 687-2155 or by e-mailing Teri Adams at biohw-@st-tel.net.

Nursery is provided by reservation only and arrangements can be made by calling Brandy Todd at 687-4465. The event is open to everyone interested in attending.

Developmental Services agency earns recertification

Developmental Services of Northwest Kansas has met all the requirements and been certified as a sponsor agency for the Teaching Family Association. The organization is the only Teaching Family Association sponsor certified agency in Kansas.

Teaching Family Association is an international organization that emphasizes the positive teaching of functional skills and behaviors of persons with disabilities. With research conducted in the 1960s at the University of Kansas, the Teaching-Family Model was developed and refined as a residential treatment model. Since 1967, it has grown into an international association. The Teaching-Family programs give people as much control over their lives as possible, while promoting and protecting their rights and dignity. The importance of family is recognized and services are provided which are culturally sensitive and competent.

"We at Developmental Services of Northwest Kansas are very proud to be recertified by Teach Family Association," said President Jim Blume.

"By using the program, we can
