Deadline nears for school expedition

The deadline is approaching for the annual travel study expedition at Colby Community College. Students have the opportunity to combine travel with academic achievement May 21-27 as they enjoy the beauty, history and culture of Big Sky Country.

The Lewis and Clark Study Expedition led by Roger Hale will commemorate the Westward Expansion of America.

Tour participants will visit the famous battle site where Lt. Col. George Custer and 260 of his men were wiped out by Sioux and Cheyenne warriors. They will experience the Lewis and Clark Expedition at Pompey's Pillar and the twisted passage that Meriwether Lewis called "gates of the Rocky Mountains."

Other stops include Great Falls, Mont., Yellowstone National Park and the Wyoming Frontier Prison.

Participants are required to enroll in a minimum of three credit hours in history or anthropology for summer
