

Readying for the finale

JAY KELLEY/Colby Free Press

Firefighter Dwayne Plumisto (left) and Rick Dickman, assistant fire chief, prepared for the "grand finale" Sunday night at the Thomas County Fairgrounds. The fireworks display, which was planned on July 4, was postponed due to recent thunderstorms and held following the speedway races shortly after 10:30 p.m. Each year the display is sponsored by the Colby Kiwanis Club and Colby Fire Department.

Many guests visiting Rexford families; Koffee Klotch held

Kristi and Dave Gray of Wichita visited her parents, Mary and Gary Withers over the weekend.

Those visiting Deb Stepper last week were her two nieces, Phyllis King and Janice Solcido; and Janice's daughter and husband; Julie and Eric James, all from California. The Koffee Klotch had 13 present on Friday morning.

They were: Eunice Sanford, Hulda Wark, Cleda Moeder, Deb Stepper, Fran Leach, Freda Ketchum, Liz Rall, Vesta Roth, Berneda Zoberst, Grace Cheney, Gloria Dible, and Sondra Barnett. Deb Stepper served delicious coffee cake.

Zula Horinek's daughter, Linda Lunsway, spent last week with her. Her husband, Leland Lunsway, spent time with his father, Lloyd Lunsway, in Colby.

Last Saturday, Betty Ann Casey, her other daughter, came from Wichita and spent the weekend. They all got together with Gary Delzeit, Larry and Summer Horinek, and children, Allyssa, Andrew, and Clyde. We had lots of fun visiting, playing cards and dominoes, and of course, eating.

Leland and Linda Lunsway returned home Thursday to San Diego, Calif.

They stopped in Glenwood Springs en route home. Gloria Dible is visiting her mother, Hulda Wark, and her sister, Sondra Barnett, this week.

Cleda Moeder left on Friday, July 2, and spent the 4th of July at Kanopolis Lake.

All of her family were there except Greg's wife, Darlene, from Houston, Texas. There were 12 in all. They enjoyed being together

Houston, for three weeks. Everyone left for home on July 5.

The fireworks in Rexford were rained out, so they were postponed until Friday evening at the park.

Vacation Bible School was held at the Community Church with a good attendance of children from 4 years through the fifth grade.

Money needed to sponsor 4-H trophies

With the 2004 Thomas County Fair almost here, sponsors are still needed to donate money for trophies, said members of the Thomas County 4-H Council Trophy Committee.

Trophies will be given to a variety of 4-H exhibits—crops, livestock, arts, cooking, sewing, etc. at the fair and any individuals, businesses and organizations can sponsor a trophy at the fair.

projected cost of each trophy is $8.

All sponsors will be thanked through an advertisement in the Colby Free Press following the fair, their names printed in next year's fair book.

For information call 462-4582.
