Broncos' top draft pick confident

iams, the Denver Broncos' top draft choice, says the learning curve will be anything but gradual for him.

"I'm not overwhelmed by anything except having 30 microphones in my face," he said Thursday during training camp. "I feel I'm talented enough to be on this field and to help my team in some kind of way whatever it is.

"They expect me to come out and perform and play."

Williams, the 17th overall selection of the 2004 NFL draft, showed skills throughout the workout that helped him become a Butkus Award semifinalist at the University of He ran step for step with wide receiver Adrian Madise on a medium range pass pattern. Madise did not get far enough away from Williams to allow quarterback Danny Kanell to attempt a pass. Williams also beat running back Ahmaad Galloway to the outside corner be-

Chiefs hit the ground running

RIVER FALLS, Wis. (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs hit the ground running in their first practice of training camp Thursday, and head coach Dick Vermeil said he expected nothing less.

"Twenty-nine of these guys have been here before," Vermeil pointed out after practice. "They're four years into the mission, so they know what to expect and they did it well."

Vermeil said he was especially impressed by the players' level of concentration on the first day.

"We worked as if we've been practicing for a week," he said. "There were no mental mistakes. No offsides, no guys jumping.

The only illegal procedure we had was on a punt. They showed real good discipline, and I was very pleased."

that things went so smoothly on the he New York Giants. first day. But Vermeil said that couldn't happen unless there were matchups of the first day of training quality players on the team to begin

"To good football players it's an advantage," he said about the familiarity factor.

"If they're not good football players, they're going to get beat. But these are good football players."

Vermeil said one of the first priorities in training camp will be to his arm between the ball and solidify the starting right tackle position left vacant by the free agent loss of John Tait to Chicago.

Welbourn in a draft weekend trade with Philadelphia and worked both Chris Bober and Brett Williams at right tackle Thursday.

With 21 of 22 starters back from a starter penciled in at the position defensive tackle will live up to exlast year, it may come as no surprise by the first pre-season game against pectations.

One of the most intriguing camp was between second-year cornerback Julian Battle and thirdyear wideout Marc Boerigter.

During an 11-on-11 drill near the end of practice, the pair ran side-byside down the right sideline before Boerigter hauled in a 40-yard strike from quarterback Trent Green.

But Battle never gave up and got Boerigter's body and wrestled the ball loose.

Colby K-18 to state tourney

The Colby K-18 team edged Russell at Smith Center 16-15 in an extra inning contest to qualify for the state tourney at Lucas this weekend.

The team finished the West Regional in fourth place after suffering two losses in their next two games. The scores of all three regional games were as follows: Game one — Colby 16, Russell 15, with Kevin Lang pitching and Levi Schlick as relief pitcher. Game two—Plainville 4, Colby 2 with Trenton Powell pitching. Game three — Quinter 7, Colby 4 with Levi Schlick pitching.

Colby's first game at Lucas will be Saturday, when they face the number one seed of the tournament, Beloit at 6:30 p.m. This tournament is a first-round must-win situation, where all losing teams will go home. The winners will move on to play for first through fourth place.
