

'Go, Eagles, GO!'

TISHA COX/Colby Free Press

This is a familiar sight at Colby basketball home games as students congregate on the bleachers at the Colby Community Building to cheer on their Eagles. You will see them again Friday night as the Quinter Bulldogs come to town. The varsity girls play at 6:30 p.m., with the varsity boys to follow.

Colby College names coach for new sport

Miles Ladenburger has been selected as the coach for the Colby Community College men and women's golf teams.

Ladenburger, a 1974 graduate of Colby Community College, was a member of the college's team that competed in the 1974 national tournament at Ft. Myers, Fla.

"Other members on the team coached by Dennis Michaelis and Jim Pechin were Kelly Beisner, Brad Bowles, Lynn Curtin and Vance Vogel," said Ladenburger. "I really enjoy golf and am pleased to have this opportunity to bring it back as a competitive sport at the college. It's a sport you can enjoy for the rest of your life."

Ladenburger will begin recruiting team members immediately for the fall 2005 season.

Scholarships are available for both teams," said Ladenburger. "I encourage anyone with an interest to contact me or athletic director Carl Adams."

The addition of the golf teams will bring the total number of varsity sports at Colby College to 14.

"I am very pleased that Miles has agreed to accept this coaching job," said Adams.

"He is an excellent golfer who has a lot of experience as an instructor. I believe our teams will have a great deal of success under his leadership," he said.

Ladenburger and his wife Linda have two sons who attend Colby High School. R.J. is a sophomore and Mikel is a freshman.
