Basketball fans can expect to see Colby Community College band director David Mruzek directing the pep band when the Trojans face Seward County Community College Sunday at the Colby Community Building. The women take the floor at 1 p.m. and the men at 3 p.m.

Another big victory for Trojan women

The Colby Community College Lady Trojans (5-4, 18-5) outscored the Lady T-Birds (5-5, 14-10) by 14 points in the second half Wednesday night in Concordia, but came up short, 68-67.

Freshman Rita Kollo scored 22 points and grabbed nine rebounds.

She was one of five Lady Trojans in double figures.

The Trojans are currently in a three way tie for third place with Dodge City (5-4, 18-5) and Hutchinson (5-4, 18-4).

Their next game is Sunday against first place Seward County

(NJCAA #3, 9-1, 23-1) at the Colby Community Building at 1 p.m.

Trojan men handed defeat

The Colby Community College Trojan men (3-6, 12-10) had their worst shooting night of the season Wednesday in Concordia, and lost to the Cloud County T-Birds (5-5, 12-11), 71-44.

The Trojans trailed by 12 at the half and hoped for better luck in the second, but their fortunes did not turn. They shot just 25 percent for the game. Conversely, the T-Birds scored 43 points on 66 percent shooting in the second half.

Freshman Rashaad Singleton scored 16 points and freshman Jamual Warren had 12. The Trojans next game is Sunday against second place Seward County (7-3, 18-6) at 3 p.m. at the Colby Community Building.

KXXX/100.3 The Ride Announce State Basketball Schedule

790 KXXX and 100.3 The Ride have announced their State Basketball Schedule for late regular-season, Sub-State Tournament, and State Tournament competition.

790 KXXX will broadcast Sub-State and State Tournament games involving Colby Boys and Colby Girls basketball teams. Legendary sportscaster, Rich Epp, will be teamed with Christy Epp to bring all of the Colby Eagles basketball action on 790 KXXX, The 5,000-watt Voice of the Golden Plains.

100.3 The Ride will broadcast Sub-State and State Tournament games involving the undefeated Hoxie Girls team featuring prep superstar, Jacie Hoyt. KXXX/KQLS General Manager, Mike Fell, and former Colby Community College star, Shannon Wells will broadcast Hoxie basketball action on 100.3 The Ride.

In the event that Colby concludes Sub-State or State Tournament play prior to the Hoxie Girls, Rich Epp will provide play-by-play calls of the Hoxie Girls on 100.3 The Ride.

In the event that the Hoxie Boys reach the Sub-State Finals or State Tournament, 100.3 The Ride will broadcast each of the Hoxie Boys games in their entirety.

As a special broadcast, 100.3 The Ride will broadcast the Northwest Kansas League Girls Championship game on Friday, February 18th between the Hoxie Girls and Goodland Girls. This game will be broadcast from Goodland, Kansas. Mike Fell will have the play-by-play action. The Hoxie Boys and Goodland Boys game will also be broadcast with limited interruptions from the Class 4A Regional Wrestling Tournament.

KXXX/KQLS General Manager, Mike Fell

"We are proud to be the home of the Hoxie Indians and Colby Eagles in the month of March. The decision to move the Colby Eagles to 790 KXXX was necessitated by the nighttime FCC signal restrictions on 790 KXXX. The nighttime signal for KXXX is unable to reach Hoxie, Kansas. Hoxie fans will easily receive the nighttime signal of 100.3 The Ride. The Colby fans will easily receive 790 KXXX for all nighttime broadcasts of Colby Eagles basketball."
