Club meets for February

Shakespeare Club first met on Feb. 10 for a luncheon at City Limits with Sharon Hixson as the honored guest.
Sharon is a long-time member of Shakespeare Club. We wish her and Warren well and thanked her for their contribution to our community.
She will be missed.
We then met for our regular club meeting at Jeanne Thyfault's "Little House."
Jeanne, our vice-president, opened the meeting. Roll call was announced before we had the program, "A Victorian habit you miss in society."
Some answers given were: writing of letters and thank-yous, good manners practiced and hats and gloves.
Jeanne presented a most interesting program on the Victorian Era. It was a beautiful time with clothes and homes reflecting this. It was a very materialistic era.
But in this society where some had so much, there were many who lived in poverty.
The era was named after Queen Victoria who became queen in 1837 and died in 1901.
Jeanne opened it up for discussion about the contradiction of the time.
We agreed we loved the beauty of this time in history, but also felt bad for the dark side of poverty.
Jeanne served us at a beautifully set table of Royal Albert's elegant Old Country Roses pattern. Albert was Queen Victoria's husband, but died at a young age.
Jeanne served a delicious raspberry cheesecake and rose tea.
The group remained around the table longer than usual reminiscing and talking about different topics. In Jeanne's perfect "Little House" we felt like we were a part of the beautiful side of the Victorian Era.

In Loving Memory of Minnie Deaver February 24, 2005

We thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday, and days before that too.

We think of you in silence, we often speak your name.
All we have are memories, and your picture in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake, with which we will never part.
God has you for his keeping, we have you in our heart.
