

Trojan wins it all — again

By Ray Nolan

Colby Community College
The Colby Community College Trojans finished fourth as a team in Division 1 and seventh overall last Saturday at the NJCAA National Tournament in Rochester, Minn., and Eric Luedke won his second national title.

Luedke, a sophomore, won his second NJCAA wrestling national championship by defeating James Varner of Pima CC, 7-4, in the 165 pound national title.

Last season Luedke won the 157 pound national title.

He is one of only a few Trojans to accomplish this feat, not to mention one of only a few wrestlers in the history of the NJCAA to do so. Luedke went 4-0 at the tournament.

Brother Zach Luedke also performed well at the national tournament, finishing 5th. He earned All-American status for the second straight season. He won his first three matches of the tournament, only to lose in the championship semi-finals. He won his fifth place match 6-2 over Antoine Love of Central Iowa.

Two freshmen also earned All-American honors. Dan Prater went 4-2 at the tournament and finished 7th in the 133 pound class. Prater lost his first match then reeled off three straight victories before losing again. He beat Darin Pestrikoff of Southwest Oregon in the seventh place match. Prater had to rebound from a broken hand just to wrestle in the tournament.

Matt Schippers earned fifth place and All-American honors by also going 4-2 on the day. Schippers won his first three matches of the tournament before losing in the championship semi-finals. He then lost a close battle to Luke Elmore of Labette in the consolation semis, 4-2. He rebounded and beat Derek Kipperberg of North Idaho in the fifth place match by fall at 2:31.

Freshmen Jason Schippers and Mat Gilliland, along with sophomore Kyle Patton unfortunately were not able to place. Jason Schippers (157 pounds) was able to earn Colby some team points though, by winning two matches in the consolation bracket. He beat Greg Smith of Neosho by fall at 2:31 and Steve McFall of Southwest Oregon by fall at 4:32.

Both Gilliland and Patton lost close matches. Gilliland lost two 5-3 decisions in the 141 pound bracket and Patton, who made his second straight trip to the NJCAA national tournament, lost two decisions, 3-2 and 2-1, at 125 pounds.

The Trojans earned seventh as a team with 62.50 points. They beat every team in the West Central District except Labette, who won the national title.

College men home after road loss

The Colby Community College Trojans men lost a heartbreaker to the Dodge City Conquistadors Saturday night in Dodge City, 62-61.

The Trojans (5-9, 14-13) had a one point lead with seven seconds left, but the ball belonged to the Conquistadors. The ball was inbounded successfully, and although Tezmar Caldwell blocked the first Conq shot, the second try was good for a Conq victory.

Lionel Womack led the Trojans with 16 points and six rebounds.

They finish their regular season this week with two games at home. Pratt (7-8, 14-15) comes to town tonight for an 8 p.m. start and Butler (6-8, 17-11) plays in Colby on Saturday afternoon at 4 p.m., all at the Community Building.

Ladies also suffer defeat on the road

The Colby Community College Lady Trojans had an uncharacteristic night in Dodge City Saturday, and lost to the Lady Conqs, 97-70. The Lady Trojans, who usually shoot 50 percent from the floor, made just 33 percent of their shots. Conversely, Dodge City made 50 percent. Ivy Ramsey led the Trojans with 19 points.

The Lady Trojans face Pratt (5-10, 18-11) tonight at 6 and Butler (3-11, 12-16) Saturday afternoon at 2. Both games are in the Colby Community Building.

Softball takes on Dodge here today

The Colby Community College Lady Trojans softball team dropped two close games to Hutchinson Sunday, 7-6 and 8-7.

Despite Heather Ebert's 5 for 9 day at the plate, the Lady Trojans just couldn't hold onto leads.

Ebert went 2 for 4 in the first game with a double. She then went 3 for 5 in the second game with a grand slam. Shanae Calkins also had a big second game, going 4 for 5 at the plate.

Last Thursday the Lady Trojans split with McCook. They lost the first game 3-1, and destroyed the Lady Indians in the second game, 14-5. The Trojans (1-5) play Dodge City (0-5) today at home at 3:00 and then travel to Concordia this weekend for a tournament.

Colby Lady Eagles

The match up between Colby and Scott City was a mismatch as the Eagles romped to a 68-29 victory.

The opening quarter saw the Eagles pop in 12 points while Scott City struggled to get 5. The second period was nearly twice as productive for the Eagles and less for the Beavers with the hosts pouring in 20 points and visitors managing only 4.
