Happenings

World Day of Prayer planned in Colby on Friday

The Church Women United of Colby will be observing World Day of Prayer at 7 p.m., Friday, at Fairview Estates, 1630 Sewell Ave., Colby.

This year's service was written by the women of Poland from the Baptist, Catholic, Lutheran, Methodist, Orthodox and Reformed traditions, said Millie Horlacher, serving as interim president of the Church Women United.

Christianity has been present in Poland for over a thousand years, she said. The Baptist women started the Polish observance of World Day of Prayer in 1927.

Over the years, other Protestant and Catholic women have joined and it is now an annual observance.

Both Catholic and Protestant women of Colby will be presenting the worship service that evening.
