Winona lawns turn green after white snow

Dragging Main in Winona, Bellevue Avenue that is, one does a double-take in the 300 block. The Prairie Skillet and adjoining building have taken on a new look and it is a very attractive site.

Emulating Erin are the lawns and pastures after a nice shower Sunday night and early Monday morning.

Congratulations to Brad and Linda Latham who celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary over the weekend.

Maxine Keller Berry had planned a trip to Shawnee, Colo. to see her sister, Freda Mason. Her niece, Regina Keller, who is the daughter of the late Leo Keller, went from Illinois to Bonner Springs, the home of Sylvia Keller Tate. Regina and Sylvia came to Page City where Maxine joined them for the trip to Colorado. They spent from Monday to Wednesday visiting Freda in Shawnee, Colo.

Jerry Lamb of Roff, Okla. and Shawn and Lori Bloodworth of Purcell, Okla. arrived Saturday and were guests of Beth Lamb until Monday morning when they returned to Oklahoma. Sharing dinner at Beth's home Sunday were her house guests, John and Tonya Lamb, Gus and Kelly, David Lamb and Amy Lamb and Kirsten.

Many friends came to honor the family and pay tribute to the life of Paul Kirkham Wednesday at the Winona United Methodist Church. The Reverends Mike Eurit and Paul McNall were officiants and Tom Harrison was the musician. Burial was in the Fort Wallace Cemetery.

Kent and Cindy Gfeller and Amberly hosted a family birthday dinner Saturday evening for Brett and Ryan Gfeller whose birth dates fall one day apart. Attending the celebration were Tom and Nancy Schertz, David and Judy Gfeller, Alma Atkinson, Ed and Lila Greene, Kurt and Julie Maurath, Leigh Ann and Adam and Dennis and Jana Gfeller, Kara, Kyle and Eric.

Caden of Grinnell called on David and Judy Gfeller Sunday afternoon. They also visited with relatives in Russell Springs.

Ashower was held at the Winona United Methodist Church for tiny baby Stilleto and her mother Monday afternoon.

There will be a community bridal shower for Lael Baxter Saturday, May 7 at 3 p.m. in Dunlap Hall at the United Methodist Church in Winona. Lael is the daughter of Sheila Plummer and the late Greg Baxter. Grandmothers are LaVonne Baxter and Norma Lee Plummer.

Radio Days will be the last Western Plains Arts program of the 2004-2005 season. The show will be performed Sunday, May 8 in the Goodland High School auditorium. It will be a nostalgic journey featuring music from the World War II era.

Tuesday was Gus Lamb's 11th birthday. Supper guests of John and Tonya Lamb, Gus and Kelly that evening were Beth Lamb and Jason and Molly Lam, Maddie and Macey.

The K-12 spring music program "America To Me" was enjoyed by a large crowd Thursday evening in the Triplains auditorium. The vocal and instrumental numbers were directed by music instructor Mrs. Glenda Graham.

Students of art instructor Mrs. Pat Koster displayed their artwork in the small gym. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria. Atmospheric mist was falling as people were walking from their cars to the school building. The prediction of snow was the topic of conversation. The morning after the spring concert the trees looked as though they were lush with blossoms and the ground vegetation was covered with snow.

Corrections

In a story on thefts at Colby Community College in the Monday, May 2 edition of the Colby Free Press, the reported value of a stolen item was miscommunicated.

Markets

Quotes as of close of previous business day Hi-Plains Co-op
Wheat	$2.97
Corn	$1.80
Milo	$2.76
Soybeans	No bid

When questioned about the value, the college included the cost of licenses attached to the software in addition to the actual disks. The $50,000 estimate included the value of the licenses. The licenses for the software are intact and were not in jeopardy. The loss of the actual disks is valued at less than $100.

Brewster residents return from Brazil

Sally Michael

• Brewster Correspondent

It is good to have Roberta and George Luckert back from their trip to Brazil. They spent most of the month of April at the home of George's sister, Beulah, and her family, near Sao Paulo, Brazil. Naturally when they returned home, it snowed shortly thereafter. I'm not saying they brought it with them, it just seems like there is always some strange weather to help us realize we are in Kansas again. According to Roberta, they traded orchids for snowballs. Doesn't sound like a fair trade to me.

Marjorie Westover is still in Colorado, celebrating her 80th birthday. Her family was going to have a surprise birthday part for her on April 24 even though the actual day wasn't until the 30th.

We do hope her special day was just what she wanted it to be and glad she will be home to tell us about it soon.

Talking about special days, I called "The Grill" to see what the plan was for Mothers Day and from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on May 8 they will be serving prime rib, so make sure you get your plans made and it might be a good idea to make reservations.

The Senior Center had a great bake sale and I want to thank all the people that supported the center by making terrific items and buying the items.

We thinned out a lot of the craft supplies and we'll leave the table up for a while in case there is something else that might help someone out later.

And I am getting excited about putting the chairs that we've selected out so they can be enjoyed. I think they will be good looking and comfortable so be sure to give me your opinion, especially if it is good.

The graduations are closing in on us and there will be lots of activities the next few weeks. The high school graduation is May 14 and the kindergarten and eighth grade graduations will be on May 16, with the 18th being the last day of school for this year. And another school year goes by with amazing speed—just like all of them have since I graduated many years ago.

We want Bud and Tess Luckert to know that we have them in prayer after the loss of their son, Clark, on Wednesday, April 27. He had lived in Dodge City for the last several years.

Ruth and Duane Jones were going to spend a few days in Greeley with their daughter Linda Hoffner and family but Linda sent word that she is battling a virus that she didn't think they would want so they will go at a later date.

Ruth rescheduled her eye exam so they will have that taken care of soon and she'll also be able to enjoy the visit with the kids and grandkids and great-grandkids.

We have Reva Eicher in prayer for a healing of whatever is attacking her. She and Jon were in Colby moving many of their things to Paola when she was suddenly taken ill. It sounds like she is on the mend now and we hope she stays that way.

Colby student earns academic honor

Jennifer Schwindt, a student at Colby High School, was named a United States National Award Winner in leadership. She was nominated by Joni Clark-Leiker, a counselor at the school.

Schwindt will appear in the United States Achievement Academy official yearbook, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history," said Dr. George Stevens, director of the academy. "Certainly, United States Achievement Academy winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement."

Schwindt is the daughter of Robert and Donna Schwindt and Dorothy Schwindt of Colby. Grandparents are Delano Millie Schwindt of Utica and Teresa Ashbaugh of Park.

Winners are selected on the recommendation of teachers, coaches and counselors based on selection standards from the academy.
