

To beautify Prairie Senior Living Complex Young and old work together

Wayne Deeds and Ralph Hansen planted trees at Prairie Senior Living Complex Saturday as part of Join Hands Day. It was a joint effort between members of Trinity Lutheran Church in Colby and Brownie Troop #218. About 15 people total were out helping plant trees, vegetables, and flowers.

Brownie Troop #218 had help from one of the Trinity Lutheran Church members (far right) planting tomatoes and other flowers at Pioneer Senior Living Complex Saturday.

Randi Cloe, Cheyenne Miller and Macy Paige lined a planter box with flowers at Prairie Senior Living Complex. They and their fellow Brownies and Trinity Lutheran Church members worked on beautifying the complex on Saturday.

Chelsie Calliham, Mara Hansen and Bruce Hansen planted tomatoes Saturday at Prairie Senior Living Complex. Hansen was helping the troop with the project.

All photos
by Tisha
Cox

Virginia Hopper and Randi Cloe looked over flowers before planting them Saturday at Prairie Senior Living Complex.