Royals sweep Dodgers

Kansas City now 11 of 15 under new manager

By Doug Tucker

AP Sports Writer

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — First they sweep the New York Yankees. Now they've swept the Los Angeles Dodgers.

What gives with these supposedly lowly Kansas City Royals? Three weeks ago, they were on track to lose more than 110 games. But since Buddy Bell became their manager they've won 11 of 15, including a 9-6 defeat of Los Angeles on Thursday night that gave them a three-game sweep of the Dodgers.

The victory also gave them the distinction of being the only team to have three-game sweeps of the Yankees and Dodgers in one year, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Of course, interleague play didn't begin until 1997.

"I'm not going to try to figure it out because when we figure it out, it might end," outfielder Emil Brown said. "I'm not going to try to figure it out. We're going to keep rolling with it."

Castillo keys sixth

Alberto Castillo had three RBIs, including a two-run double that keyed a six-run sixth inning, and Mike Wood (3-2) got the victory in relief of starter Zack Greinke.

"Buddy has given us a lot of confidence," Castillo said. "He says, 'You guys know how to play the game, you've got to prepare yourself to play the game mentally.'"

Only one of the six runs in the sixth against Derek Lowe (5-7) was earned. With one out in the sixth, David DeJesus and Matt Stairs singled, and Brown reached on shortstop Antonio Perez's error as DeJesus scored, making it 3-3.

"We stranded runners, we didn't get the job done defensively in the sixth inning and it cost us the ballgame," manager Jim Tracy said. "Derek Lowe deserved better than he got, I can tell you that."

After Brown reached in the sixth, Terrence Long singled and was forced at second on Shane Costa's fielder's choice grounder that scored Stairs.

Fans react loudly

As Royals fans who've had little to cheer about roared louder and louder, Mark Teahen hit an RBI single, Castillo hit a two-run double and Ruben Goria greeted reliever Frankquelis Osoria with an RBI single.

Until then, Lowe had retired 11 in a row. "At no point did you think they were going to score six runs," Lowe said.

"You've got to give them credit. I didn't see them play earlier this year. But apparently Buddy's got them playing really good. They put together some good at-bats."
