Colby High School sophomore Logan Wark, who will play varsity for the Lady Eagles tennis team this fall, went after the ball during practice Wednesday at Fike Park. The Lady Eagles travel to Hays at 3 p.m. Thursday for a match. The junior varsity team goes to Scott City the same day. Their matches start at 3 p.m.

Lady Eagles tennis team takes first at season-opening tourney

Eagles tennis team opened their season on a high note taking a firstplace finish at the Trego Varsity Round Robin Tournament last Sat-Trego, Phillipsburg, Russell, Norton, Tribune and Colby.

The Eagles had two first place individual performances from Logan Wark at #2 singles, finishing handily won that match 8-0. with a record of 4-0 along with the #2 doubles team comprised of Kaylie Dugger and Rashaun Wilson Rachel started out with a tough of Plainville 8-0. match against Leanna Newcomer

Coach's comments: "Kaylie together for the first time and did very well. Logan was very solid winning each match very convincingly. I look forward to seeing some good things from both Logan and Rachel this year. Robin and Nikole had a tough afternoon. They are usually able to come back when they get down in a match, so often that I began to call them the comeback queens last year. Unfortunately, it didn't turn out that way today."
