Friday is deadline to register for church music workshop

A church music workshop will be offered from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 29 at Sacred Heart Church in Colby. The deadline for registration is Friday, Oct. 21.

They will host Ken and Barbara Mervine, nationally renowned church clinicians from the Denver area.

This is a special opportunity for individuals and families who want to do more with church music.

The focus will be on Catholic worship but the musical ideas and skills are valuable to vocalists and instrumentalists of all faith persuasions.

The workshop is $15 per individual and an additional $5 if anyone wants to join in for lunch.

As a special encouragement for families to participate we will honor the same price to a family (mother, father (or both) and children, ages 9 and up).

Childcare will be provided for those at age 8 and under. All participants are welcome to sing the workshop selections during the 5:30 p.m. Mass.

A brochure with more information and a registration form is available by calling the church office at (785) 462-2179. It is also on the church's Web site, <http://www.sacredheartcolby.com>.

Ellsworth paper editor visits Winona

Mrs. Linda Denning of Ellsworth was a recent visitor of Lloyd and Ruth Theimer. Mrs. Denning is editor of the Ellsworth County Independent Reporter newspaper.

Ruth Theimer's brother, Roger Olson, and his wife were weekend guests of Lloyd and Ruth Theimer. They were en-route to their home in Boulder after attending the Hyllings Fest in Lindsborg.

The second WPAA concert area Winona members attended was Whit Smith's Hot Jazz Caravan in Hoxie. Enjoying the entertainment from the Winona area were Lindy and Lola Bretz, Warren and Lois Starns, LaVonne Baxter, Beth Lamb, and Jean Lowe. Pat Weeks of Hoxie joined the ladies group. A critique revealed an error in reporting Winona members traveling to Hoxie to hear the ACappella group. They did attend the concert-in Atwood.

Rain showers didn't discourage people from attending the annual smorgasbord at the Winona U.M. Church Monday evening. Everyone enjoyed the good food and many lingered to chat.

Curiosity nearly killed the proverbial cat Tuesday when people on Bellview Ave. began seeing cars and pick-ups circle the City Building. It wasn't a closed meeting of a suspected "Watergate". The "leak" revealed it was a regular chamber meeting. It is just taken for granted the meetings are always on Thursdays at the chamber building. Whatever the reason business was conducted as usual on a different day and place.

A grave-side service was held Friday, Oct. 14 at 11 a.m. for former resident, Muriel Rome. Lunch was provided at the Chamber of Commerce Building.

The county health nurse will be at the Winona U.M. Church Tuesday, Nov. 15 to administer flu shots from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. The same service will take place that same day in Russell Springs at the Episcopal Church. She will be there in the morning from 9 to 10:30 a.m.

Alicia Fulton and Trenton recently spent a weekend with Marshall and Tammy Fulton. They visited grandmothers, Gladys Fulton and Dorothy Francis, in Colby.

Harry Norris and his son came to the Lamb Ranch, which was Harry's boy-hood home, to recall old memories. Mr. Norris lives in Nevada.

Pam Lewallen spent the weekend in Hays babysitting her granddaughter, Brooklyn Lewallen, while Darris and Merry Lewallen were in Kansas City attending the NASCAR races.

Leigh McHatton, daughter of J.C. and Sandie McHatton, was a resident in the apartment complex in Lawrence which was destroyed by fire. She is being treated for burns at K.U. Medical Center in Kansas City. Word from her father, J.C. McHatton is "She is doing good," She will return with her parents when she is released from the hospital. The McHattons live in the rural farm home formerly occupied by Emerson Lahman and the late Mary Lahman.

Larry Haverfield's cousin, Carolyn Glider, of Westminster, Colo. spent a day at the ranch visiting with Larry and Bette Haverfield. She was intrigued by life on a cattle ranch after spending time checking cattle with Larry.

Kenneth and Jodi Veltman of Salina were week-end guests of Kenneth and Louise Smith. Pauline Smith joined them to visit Friday evening and for breakfast Saturday morning. Kenneth Veltman is a nephew of Kenneth Smith and the late Harold Smith and the son of Kenneth's sister, the late Helen Veltman. Sunday the Smiths and Veltmans called on Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Blaes in Sharon Springs.

Phyllis Herschberger is in Citizen's Medical Center in Colby being treated for a bout with pneumonia. She is doing better and hopes to return home soon.

Pastor Mike Eurit told the bible story for the week to 12 Son Shine Kids. They played a game and had cookies and apple slices. LaVonne Baxter was a guest and helped with snacks.

Four charming performers kept the audience captivated during their presentation of "The Three Little Kittens" in the Triplains Auditorium Thursday morning. Thirty seven adults and 118 students and preschoolers attended. Superintendent David Porter welcomed the Grinnell elementary students, home schoolers, and Triplains students. Blake Potter and one of the history classes graciously assisted in setting up and taking down props.

What better way is there to start the week in Western Kansas than having two days of gentle rainfall? The WRSPC area was blessed with 2 1/2 to 3 inches across the area.s

'Apron Day' at senior center next week
