Deaths

Mabel Alcie Haynes Treu

Mabel Alcie Haynes Treu, 103, of Hoxie, died Monday, Oct. 17, 2005, at Sheridan County Long Term Care in Hoxie.

She was born to Charles Elbert and Inez Almara (Cooper) Haynes on Oct. 13, 1902 in a sod house in Bow Creek Township.

She taught school at Bow Creek and came to pick up her paycheck from John Treu who was on the school board. He later became her husband and they were married on April 14, 1922, in Norton. She moved to Hoxie in 1975 and entered Sheridan County Long Term Care in Feb., 1997.

They enjoyed traveling and Alaska and Hawaii were two of the places they went.

Mrs. Treu was a member of and take on some new craft projects. It's that time of year to start your Christmas projects.

The Brewster Methodist Church had a wonderful turkey supper Nov. 2, and wanted to thank everyone that came, and also thanked everyone that helped with the preparation and serving to make it such an enjoyable evening. They served about 270 people. Those who helped the UMW were the Lutheran Church, Levant Church, Brewster Community church and many high school students. Thank you for all your support.

The October meeting of the UMW was held Wednesday, Oct. 26 with seven members being present. Doris Mayer presented the program on "Praying Women." She was assisted by Bonnie Reid, Wanda Fulwider, Nadine Kammer and Eva Lou Selby. The program brought out many ways to enrich our prayer life. Doris then conducted the business meeting. Nadine Kammer gave the report from the "Response Magazine." The hostess, Joyce Crabtree, served a pumpkin roll and hot cider.

Bonnie Reid is home recovering from knee surgery. Wish you a fast recovery and see you soon at the Center.

Barbara Springsteen was visiting friends in Brewster for several days.

Was good to see her at the Center.

Jon and Reva Eicher wanted everyone to know how much they appreciate all the help that the community has given them, and the welcome back to Brewster everyone has shown. Like I told Reva there is nothing like coming home to your roots.

The Brewster High School drama department is having its dinner theater Saturday. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m., followed by the play at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, there will be an encore presentation of the play at 3 p.m. Their is no admission charge for either performance of the play, only the meal Saturday evening. Tickets for the meal are $6 for adults, children under 12, $4.

The annual board meeting for the Brewster Senior Center will be held 1:30 p.m. Dec. 4. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Let us not forget to keep all of the ill and needy in our prayers, each and every day, and ask God to hold them in his arms and heal them and show them the way, His way.

Have a good week, and don't forget to join in on all the happenings going on this month.

God bless you.

Daughters of Isabella hold meeting

Immaculate Heart of Mary Circle #747 met in the Knights of Columbus room at 7:30 p.m. for their monthly meeting. Loretta Zerr, Regent, called the meeting to order. The opening prayer was said as a group.

The opening ode was sung and the pledge to the flag was said.

Two new members were welcomed, Rhonda Rogers and Brette Pfeifer.

The charter was draped in honor of deceased member Dorothy Kleinsorge.

A thank-you note was read from Catholic Charities for a donation made for the Hurricane Katrina victims

Theresa Baker and Susan Veeh reported of their plans for the Christmas party. It will be at the Country Club Thursday, Dec. 1 at 6:30 p.m. for happy hour 7 p.m. for the meal. The meal will be steak or chicken. Theresa and Susan will call the members to get the number of people planning to attend.

Each member is asked to bring a donation of a food item for Genesis food pantry, and a wrapped Christmas white elephant to be used for Bingo prizes.

Darline Hutfles and Rosetta Bremenkamp served a delicious pumpkin dessert, tea and coffee for the visiting time afterwards.

Correction

A story in Friday's edition of the Colby Free Press incorrectly stated Dale Quast, along with Jeremy Palmer, tried to out run police April 1.

The two men were co-defendants in a case, but it was only Palmer who tried to elude authorities, Quast being arrested at his residence.

The Colby Free Press wants to maintain an accurate record of our town.
