Library in Motion unique experience

The Colby Law Enforcement Fund and the Friends of the Library sponsored the second Library in Motion event this year, said Jeff Friesen, librarian, Pioneer Memorial Library.

“Twenty middle school students participated in a trip to Denver recently with the first stop at the Denver Museum of Nature and Science,” he said.

Students learned such things as scatologists studying waste matter, sleeping on your right side helps gas escape easier, and scientists actually study rhinotillexomania (nose-picking).

The second stop on the itinerary, Friesen said, was exploring the Hammond Candy Factory where each piece of candy is produced by hand.

“Imagine a 5 pound lollipop,” he said.

The last stop on the day-long event was the Corn Maze at the Denver Botanic Gardens.

“Twenty middle school students wandering about in a maze—it’s amazing everyone was home by midnight,” he said.

“We were all pretty tired by the time we got back, but what a great day,” Friesen said.

Barnett picks running mate in GOP race

TOPEKA (AP)— Sen. Jim Barnett has picked Sen. Susan Wagle as his running mate in his bid to be the Republican gubernatorial nominee facing Democrat Gov. Kathleen Sebelius.

Barnett, an Emporia physician, is running in the Aug. 1 primary against House Speaker Doug Mays, of Topeka; former House Speaker Robin Jennison, of Healy; and two lesser-known candidates. It’s the first time in at least two decades that two senators have been on a ticket for governor.

Neither Mays nor Jennison has announced a running mate.

Wagle, 52, of Wichita, was first elected senator in 2000 and was a House member for a decade before that. She’s known for embracing conservative causes, but Barnett said he didn’t pick her to cut into Mays’ conservative base.

“This is a ticket for all Kansans,” Barnett said.

Barnett said one of his top priorities is to bring jobs to the state.

“She is respected by the business community and has national connections that will help us bring business to this state,” he said. “A big part of her job is working with me on how we can grow the economy of Kansas.”

“Jim and I are in fundamental agreement on the big issues affecting this state, on the need to get Kansas moving forward.”
