Brewster returning to normal routine

The New Year seems to be settling back to the normal routine, but had a lot of visiting during the holidays.

Marion Crumrine's cousin David Mille from Lafayette, Colo. stopped in for a short visit on New Year's Day. On Jan. 3, Marion and Coleen's grandchildren, Jesse Crumrine and Christi Somers were dinner guests, along with their son, Willard.

New Year's guests at the home of Nadine Kammer were Lou and Warren Brown, Charlotte and Buff VanLandingham and daughter Brienna, all of Prescott, Ariz. and Annette Brown of Seattle, Wash. They also visited at the home of Kenneth and Norma Kammer and with Lucille Smith at Prairie Senior

We received word that Wilma Burk fell and fractured some vertebrae in her neck. She is at the medical center in Hays. Her address is Hays Medical, Debakey Center, 2220 Canterbury Dr., Room 2218, Hays, Kan. 67601. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Also got word last week Lloyd Taylor passed away around Christmas.

You will all remember he was the band instructor at Brewster in the 1950s and 1960s, and oh, what a band we had. Brings back a lot of memories.

The Heritage Center annual meeting will be held at noon Saturday, Jan. 21.

Baked ham, roast beef and drinks will be furnished. Please bring a side dish or dessert and come on down.

The games at tribune Friday night were successful. The boys game was won 75-57. The girls won 62-32. Great going students and coaches.

Don't forget the blood pressure checks from 10-11:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 17.

Dearest Child, There's a battle raging all around you this very day.

You cannot see the enemy with your human eyes, for this fight is in the spirit realm, against forces of evil. The enemy soldiers take their orders from the Prince of Darkness, the unseen power who controls this world.

Does all this sound like some sort of a scary story made up to frighten you? Believe me it is not; these things are real. You need to be warned. But you do not need to be afraid. Not ever. I have not given you a spirit of fear, but a spirit of power and love and self-control. I have provided for your defense and your protection. I am even sending you out as a warrior to stand against this enemy of mine.

No loner are you to be weak and ineffective. Instead, be strong! Your strength will not come from yourself, but from me. I have boundless resources of power. So put on my full suit of spiritual armor, and you will surely be able to resist the enemy and to stand for me through every trial and temptation. Your commander-in-chief, God. Ephesians 6:10-13.

Busy December for Pi Gamma Club

The new year is here and Pi Gamma Club wishes you a healthy and prosperous year.
