Colby's Lissa Mazanec (32), April Weaver (25) and Paige Stephens put pressure on the Pratt offense during Colby's 88-30 first-round sub-state win Tuesday in Colby. The Eagles play Ulysses Friday in Goodland in the semi-finals.

The Colby Lady Eagles easily got by the Pratt Lady Greenbacks 88-30 Tuesday at Colby in the first round of sub-state.

This type of outcome was expected since the Lady Eagles are ranked No. 1 seed in their bracket while Pratt (1-19) was ranked eighth.

Colby had a bit of a slow start but managed a 19-9 lead at the end of the first quarter. The Lady Eagles picked up the speed every quarter after that, though.

The Eagles made 36-52 field shots for 58 percent. They also snagged 41 rebounds, a season high. The Lady Eagles were able to force Pratt into 28 turnovers thanks to its press. That led to an additional 32 points for Colby.

Colby junior Paige Stephens led the Lady Eagles with 18 points and 10 rebounds.

Following her were junior Lissa Mazanec with 18 points, Tasha Wagoner, 14 points; senior Rishonna Martin, 13 points, and April Gee, a freshman, with 10 points.

"I was pleased with the way they played. We worked on some new things and hopefully got better at those things," said Colby coach Derek Bissitt.

The Lady Eagles (18-2) will play the Ulysses Lady Tigers Friday in Goodland in the semi-final round of sub-state. Ulysses (11-10) defeated Larned Tuesday in the first round.

Friday's game time has yet to be announced.

Eagle boys hand game to Ulysses

If it was not Colby's turnovers, it was Ulysses' ability to score when needed that ended the Colby High boys basketball season Monday.

Ulysses defeated Colby 64-58 in the first round of sub-state play at the Colby Community Building.

According to Colby coach Beau Sheets, the difference in the game was turnovers. The Eagles gave the ball up 17 times to Ulysses' nine. Those turnovers led to points. In the second quarter the Tigers outscored the Eagles 21-11.

"We didn't take care of the ball. There were too many turnovers," said Sheets.

Ulysses' halftime lead of 28-22 could have been bigger. With less than 30 seconds to go before halftime, Colby managed to score a basket then steal the inbounds pass to score another time to keep the deficit less than 10 points.

The third quarter was key for both teams. There were several times Colby was able to get closer, and almost get ahead. Colby managed to trail Ulysses by either two or three points, but Ulysses would not let Colby get closer. Ulysses made four three-point shots in the third. Those shots ended a Colby run and put the Tigers back up by five.

"We battled back a few times, but each time we got close, Ulysses would hit a big shot," said Sheets.

Ulysses made 6-16 three point shots in the game.

Colby trailed 59-56 with 1:21 left in the game. Ulysses Jared Irvin would not let Colby get closer as he made five of six free throws until there were 18 seconds left. Colby could not make a shot during that same timespan, but had to foul to regain possession.

Colby senior Trey Barnett led the Eagles with 20 points and nine rebounds. Sophomore Levi Schlick scored 13 points and have rebounds. Ulysses' Kevin Orr led the Tigers with 23 points.

With the loss, the Eagles end their season with an 11-10 record, a vast improvement, since they started the season with a 3-8 record. The loss was disappointing, for Sheets, and for the team.

"I was disappointed that it was Tom Bowen's last game and we weren't able to send him out on a high note; but I want to thank Tom for all the hard work he has put in. It is also disappointing for the seniors to end on a sour note," Sheets said.

Bowen, an assistant for the boy's team, retired. He was first involved with Colby High sports in 1981. He left the school in 1990 only to return in 1997 as an assistant coach.

The Colby Eagles may not have had the best game to win on, but they still had a strong season Sheets said.

Sheets also finished his first season as boys coach.

"I am proud of the way the boys played all year. They were a great group to coach and be around. They made it an enjoyable year," said Sheets.

Other Colby seniors on this year's team included Trevor Siebert, Ryan White, R.J. Ladenburger and Anthony Rohr.
