Instrumentalist to perform at Oberlin

Multi-instrumentalist Todd Green will perform at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 15 at the Gateway Center in Oberlin.

He will present a concert with South American Charango and Zamponia, East Indian Tablas and Santoor ethnic instruments, along with one-of-a-kind custom built instruments like the Swar Rabouditar and Guitarangí da Gamba will be played.

He has astounded audiences across the country with his diversity on a multitude of string, flute and percussion instruments from all over the world. His performance will be enhanced by digital samplers, which allow him to record and over-dub instruments one by one, making him a one-man-orchestra of unique and exotic instruments.

Green has been writing and performing his own music professionally since the age of 15. He studied composition, arrangement and performance at Berklee College of Music and privately with Guitar Greats George Benson, Pat Metheny, Christopher Parkening and Mick Goodrick. He has also studied ethnic instruments, including the Indian Bansuri Flute with master

He will also perform at 10:30 a.m. at the Oberlin Elementary School on Monday, April 16, and at 3 p.m. at the Good Samaritan Center.

Sponsored by Oberlin Arts and Humanities Commission, this is a season ticket event or $10 for adults, and $5 for students at the door. For details, call Ella Betts (785) 475-3557 or Mary Henzel, (785) 470-0218.

Winona team earns second at tourney

The Brewster gym was filled with third and fourth grade boys, eager to try their skills at the hoop. Just as eager to watch their sons, grandsons, brothers, or just the kid on the block were the spectators. It was an all day five on five basketball tournament Saturday. The Winona team consisted of Hudson Stramel, Jared Lorenzen, Coleton Rogge, Fred Schertz, Ryan Gfeller, Eric Gfeller, and Grant Frasier. Kent Gfeller is their coach. They earned second place and each boy received a medal.

Art and Pat Koster and Lucille Bruns were in Hutchinson over the weekend. They attended the Sunday morning church service March 25, at the Imanuel Lutheran Church in Hutchinson. Cameron and Jessica Koster presented Ava Grace Koster for the Sacrament of Holy Baptism. Joel Koster and Jordan Tonn were sponsors. Cameron and Jessica Koster hosted lunch for the family members after the service.

Larry and Lavetta Langdon came to Winona Saturday and took Larry's mother, Evelyn Langdon, to their home in Stratton, Neb., to spend the night. They arrived in time to watch the KU basketball game. Both Evelyn and the Jayhawks were upset.

Kirsten and Kourtney Hansen of Marion spent last week with their grandparents, David and Judy Gfeller. They were on spring break. One of the days they were luncheon guests of their cousins, Kyle, Eric, and Ryan Gfeller in the school cafeteria.

Susan Casper and Dalton were weekend guests of her parents, Steve and Dianne Schertz. Sunday afternoon Susan and Dalton were honored with a come and go shower at the Winona U.M. Church. It was a hub of activity, with children outside enjoying the beautiful spring day. Linda Thacker, Tricia Taylor, Christi Schertz, and Coleen Dougherty hosted the event. Out of town relatives accompanied by their children and/or grandchildren, were Marsha Sieck of Edson, Kathleen Krayca of Tribune, Joyce Kemp of Cheyenne Wells, Colo., Jill Beringer of Goodland, and Sheryl Harrison. Other area relatives and many friends enjoyed the afternoon of visiting and refreshments.

Lloyd and Ruth Theimer were in Garden City Tuesday on business.

A Thursday matinee of "Is There A Doctor In The House?" was held in the Triplains Auditorium. The high school cast also presented an evening performance. There was plenty of action and lots of laughs. Andrea Plummer directed the comedy. The cast included Robin Baker, Aric Grob, Hannah Moorhous, Lakyn Mackley, Matthew Ballentine, Taylor Barrett, Boone Moser, Heather Martin, Rachael Smith, Sam Smith, Jenna Mackley, Amberly Gfeller, Kara Gfeller, Jerri Williams, Tori Mackley, Erik Colling, Brett Gfeller, Doug Margheim, Bryant Plummer, Krystof Spurny, Clay Rogge, and Lane Ochs.

Charlene Taylor was a Sunday dinner guest of Paul and Amy Lorenzen Joshua and Jared. Being Jared's 9th birthday, it was a special occasion.

How fast the earth colors have changed in just a little over a month. It went from stark white to dirt brown, and is now crayola green. Mother Nature's display of fireworks both Friday and Wednesday nights were phenomenal, fortunately producing only rain in our communities. Russell Springs had a total of nearly an inch. South of Russell Springs, the Dirks' had .80. Harley Herschberger reported approximately 1.42 inches. Winona had 1.30 inches. The Kirks, west of Winona, had a combined total of .90. Max Kriegh, on the Logan/Thomas County line, had 1.20 inches. Ron Kough, south of Page City, had 1.50 inches. The Schertz and Berry neighborhood had an inch and a half.

The Winona United Methodist Ecumenical Choir will sing "Rock of Faith" at the Winona U.M. Church Sunday, April 15, 2007 at 4:00 p.m. Refreshments and fellowship will follow. Everyone is welcome.
