

Celebrate National Library Week with book review series

It's time to come together for National Library Week this year from April 16 - 21.

Yes, the theme this year is Come Together and you are invited to spend the lunch hour every day of the week at Pioneer Memorial Library. Absolutely no preparation is needed as a free lunch will be provided each day. The line-up is listed below along with the day each reviewer will be at the library.

Monday: Jim Oliver became a local celebrity when he took a once-in-a-lifetime motorcycle trip around the world. In his "hot off the press" autobiography, Jim recounts the decisions in life that influenced and ultimately led him to take a trip around the world. In addition, Jim tells of the life lessons he learned while taking the trip as well as how the experience is impacting his life long after the trip was done. Jim will review his self-published book titled "Lucille and the XXX Road."

Tuesday: What would you write about after traveling 25,000 zigzagging miles through the Great Plains region? Author Ian Frazier took off on an adventure to learn more about the Great Plains states, wrote a travelogue, and compiled his thoughts in the book Great Plains. Find out how Frazier's perspective compares with our own — as residents of the Plains — on Tuesday when John Van Nostrand reviews the book "Great Plains" by Ian Frazier.

Wednesday: The mystique of John F. Kennedy is timeless. His optimism, youth, and resolve will mark him as one of the most intriguing what ifs in United States history. Robert Dallek took advantage of some previously unavailable material and archives to put together the first major, single volume biography of Kennedy in almost 40 years. Join us Wednesday as Skip Sharp reviews the book "The Unfinished Life: John F. Kennedy 1917-1963."

Thursday: What lengths would you go to prove your love for a lady? Wally Chubb, an introverted farmer, has vowed to eat an entire Boeing 747 to show his love to Superior, Neb., newspaper editor Willa Wyatt. While she isn't wholeheartedly smitten with Wally, she does find herself drawn to the author chronicling Wally's unique display of affection. His name is Ben Sherwood and his book is titled "The Man Who Ate the 747." Find out more about this eccentric love triangle and the 747 that binds when Ralph Fischer is here on Thursday.

Friday: Last, but certainly not least, is the sobering story of the life of Ayaan Hirsi Ali in the autobiography "Infidel." Born in Somalia, Ayaan led the life of a typical Muslim woman, repressed physically, emotionally, and culturally. But for Ayaan life changed dramatically when, in transit to Canada for an arranged marriage, Ayaan decided to seek asylum in the Netherlands. It was here that Ayaan experienced an enlightenment and intellectual awakening that served as the basis for this book. Join us for the ending to a great week with Carol Rahn as she reviews the book "Infidel" by Ayaan Hirsi Ali.

Pioneer Memorial Library is located at 375 W. Fourth and open seven days a week. Winter hours are as follows: Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. - 8 p.m.; Friday, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.; and Sunday, 1 p.m. - 4 p.m. For more information contact the Library at 460-4470 or visit our web site at www.colbylibrary.com. As always, we are here to serve you.
