Colby Shakespeare Club learns about its history

Colby Shakespeare Club held their second April meeting at the Colby Methodist Church with Kathy Calliham hosting and co-hosting the meeting.

President Ruth Lowenthal opened the meeting with the group repeating in unison the Club Collect and The Pledge of Allegiance.

Roll call was answered with "My Favorite Shakespeare Club Memory." Five members answered roll.

Minutes of the March 23 and April 20 meetings were read and approved.

In the absence of the treasurer's report, it was assumed our balance of $299.41 is still the same.

Kathy Calliham mentioned that Shakespeare Club dues of $20 will be due next meeting and if Phyllis is unable to attend, Kathy will collect for her.

Still no Vice-president - hope one will be selected at next meeting.

President Ruth passed out ballots for voting on the name for the combined clubs.

Lois moved we change the May meeting to May 4 from May 11. Motion carried.

Kathy will check on accommodations for the club spring luncheon and will let members know of time and place.

Kathy Calliham gave the program "A Club Is Born." Shakespeare Club was organized Oct., 8 1907. This is also the year the cornerstone was laid at the Court-house.

The High School was built, 210 South Range; the Opera House, 265 W. Fourth. Shakespeare Club was organized to gain knowledge of Shakespeare drama, study characters of the Bible, and promote public welfare. The meeting time was 2:30 p.m.; if you were tardy you were fined .05 cents and if program was not prepared, a .50 fine was assessed.

At their first meeting their civic work was to promote a library and restroom for the City Council. It was an open house — invitations were sent to all friends male or female.

In 1911 they started using the Collect. Over the years new projects were started — put on plays, to make money for Education Fund for Federation. Their first play "A Girl In A Thousand" was at the Opera House. They hosted many District Meetings. Other projects; they collected letters sent to the Post Office for Santa and filled the requests for children whose parents couldn't afford presents. They sent carpet rags to blind veterans; sent cigarettes and ash trays to soldiers.

Took part in Arbor Day — sponsored music talent, gave teas, made towels and bed pads for hospital, met during the summer to sew for Red Cross; made cookies for U.S.O. teachers teas, children parties, had Valentine Parties, husbands dinners, guest days, candy making etc.

In 1911 and 1912 had dreadful dust storms that laid waste all the land for 20 miles around. A lot of people left and only 10 members were left.

In 1952 Mrs. Grace Lutgen wrote a pageant for Thomas County Fair "Golden Buckle On The Wheat Belt" which started the slogan we have today.

The first April meeting of Shakespeare, Pi Gamma and Sorois Clubs was called to order by Lois Van Horn.

The members recited the Club Collect in unison. The Pledge of Allegiance was omitted due to absence of flag.

Lois introduced her guest, Connie Mitchell. Connie and her husband moved to Coolly from Leoti about four months ago.

Members were asked to remain for a short business meeting following the program. The program was presented by the Coolly High and Middle School Technology Student Association. Lamoreaux Fulwider is the advisor for TSA.

The students and faculty were thanked for their program. Members and guests were invited to stay for refreshments.

Lois thanked Joyce and Verna for helping host the meeting.

The short business meeting conducted by Vanessa Eicher was canceled and ballots for voting on naming the combined clubs was handed to the members for voting at their next meeting.

Club sends items to soldiers

The state chapter of Immaculate Heart of Mary Circle will continue to sponsor Birthright and has added a new project, which is to send a box of small items to servicemen in Iraq. Joan Ziegler offered to coordinate this and will have a list of items good to send and the box at Leroy's Printing. Her grandson, Torri McDougal will be in Iraq soon and Pauletta Bieker's son Robert is serving there now.

Immaculate Heart of Mary Circle #747 met May 3, at 6 p.m. for a delicious gourmet meal. The committee served a potato casserole, roast beef and gravy, ambrosia salad, mixed green salad, tolls and choice of coconut cream, raisin cream or lemon pie. A business meeting followed.

Loretta Zerr called the meeting to order. Loretta led a prayer for recently deceased members, Frances Bremenkamp and Mathilde Dellere. Loretta thanked the ladies who took a meal to the Dellere family and to Barnett's when Charlene's mother, Loretta Hayden died.

A mass for the repose of the soul of Margaret Herald will be 5:30 p.m. Monday, July 23. Masses for Frances Bremenkamp and Mathilde Dellere will be soon and when the dates are set will be in the church bulletin.

The five who attended the state convention in Newton enjoyed it. The basket from our circle brought $70 on the silent auction. Helen McBurney from Chapman was elected as State Regent. Our circle won second place in the state for most increased membership percentage wise.

This is our last meeting until September.

A mass will be celebrated for Daughters of Isabella members June 29 at 7 a.m.

Volunteer time done by members is put down and sent to the state office with the quarterly reports. Loretta urged members to keep a better record to report hours served for church community, civic, hospital visits etc.

Rhonda Rogers will keep track of money donated to charity.

After some discussion the slate of officers for next year was agreed upon except for the vice regent. Hopefully by September someone will agree to accept that office.

CeAnn Rinehart read a article appropriate for Mother's Day. Mary, the mother of God, and model for all mothers was the subject of the lesson. The obligation was said as a group and the closing ode sung.

Appointment calendar

Dear Heloise: I, too, highlight occasions and appointments in my calendar (as suggested by a reader), but I add an additional step by penciling in a mail date. This has worked for me to make sure things arrive on time, but I also don't have to keep reminding myself that something has to be mailed. — Cathy L. Nelson, Coto de Caza, Calif.

Organize photo negatives

Dear Heloise: A suggestion for newlyweds or families starting out: organize photo negatives. I had to go through more than 30 years' worth of negatives to find a certain one. They were all in a tub together, and I wished we would have organized them. — Theresa H., Glendale, Ariz.

Oh, what a project. If you can't locate the negative, you can take a photo of the photo. — Heloise (c) King Features Syndicate Inc.
