This is a logic-based number placement puzzle. The goal is to enter a number, 1-9, in each cell in which each row, column and 3x3 region must contain only one instance of each numeral. The solution to today's Sudoku puzzle is below.

Test topic: Boredom

Are you or someone you know bored most of the time? If the answer is yes, maybe you'd like to see how much you actually know about the subject.

1. Boredom is like a disease, and a healthy person never suffers from boredom.

True () False ()

2. Fortunately, boredom is temporary and has few serious consequences.

healthy people, feel boredom at some time, but it's unusual, partly especially when campaigning, because they have so many interests in life.

2. False. For a surprising number, boredom is not unusual, and chronic boredom can have many serious consequences: chronic infidelity, drug abuse, alcoholism and crime.

3. False. Boredom can serve an important positive purpose when it sets off an alarm that leads people to analyze themselves and find a solution -- perhaps finding a different job, shifting their goals or changing their lifestyle.

4. True. Shopping for almost boredom. Even things such as tion and restlessness. 8. If you feel bored and unable buying a car and, later, an "acci-
