Cory Sager tagged Burlington’s Nat David out at the plate during Colby’s 12-5 victory in game two of their season opening doubleheader Saturday at the city fields. Sager’s walk-off homer gave Colby a 10-9 win in the first game. They finished the weekend 2-2 after getting swept in a doubleheader by North Platte Sunday.

Legion team opens season 2-2

Colby’s opening weekend of the American Legion baseball season started with some sizzle and ended with a fizzle.

After sweeping a doubleheader from Burlington, Colo., 10-9 and 12-5, Colby got a taste of their own medicine Sunday as North Platte mashed their way to an 11-4 victory in game one and 9-1 in game two.

The highlight of the weekend occurred in game one against Burlington when catcher Cory Sager lifted Colby to victory with a walk-off home run in the bottom of the seventh.

Sager’s homer came on the heels of a two-run blast by Burlington’s Jose Martinez that tied the game at 9 with two outs in the top half of the inning.

“I don’t know what the pitch was he hit,” said Colby head coach Jeff Krzycki. “But whatever it was, it looked like a beach ball coming into Cory.”

Sager’s home run made a winner out of Brandon Rasmussen, who battled through seven innings despite allowing 14 hits and seven earned runs.

Rasmussen was staked to a 6-3 lead after a four-run Colby fourth inning highlighted by a two-RBI double by Cade Carter and an RBI single from Sager.

Burlington answered with two in the fourth and one in sixth to tie it, but a two-RBI single by Stephen Dinkel and a Burlington error led to three Colby runs in bottom of the inning to put them back ahead 9-6.

The momentum switched back to Burlington in the seventh. Fortunately, Colby had the last at-bat.

“When you hit the ball like we did today there’s a lot of good things that can happen,” said Krzycki. “That’s probably the hardest we’ve hit in quite a while.”

Sager and Dinkel each led the way with two hits and a pair of RBIs. Carter was 1-3 with an RBI and Levi Schlick was 1-4 with an RBI.

Reliever Jacob Graff took the loss for Burlington. Three Burlington pitchers combined to give up just seven hits, but walked 10 Colby batters.

In game two, Colby didn’t need the walks.

Colby scored a run in each of the six innings, including 10 over the first four to open a 10-2 lead. Colby finished with 14 hits in the game and also received assistance with five Burlington errors.

Eight Colby players had multiple-hit games led by Dinkel, who was 3-4 with a walk and a stolen base.

Carter, Schlick, Sager, Mitchell Gatz, Brent Arnberger and Preston Krzycki each had two hits. Sager drove in three, while Krzycki and Schlick drove in two.

Colby did all of their damage against Martinez and reliever Nat David without the use of an extra-base hit.

Filling in for an injured Kevin Lang, Preston Krzycki didn’t disappoint in his first start of the summer. He picked up the win after allowing just two runs and five hits in five innings. Garrett Rogers pitched the final two innings, allowing three runs on four hits—all coming in the sixth inning.

“Playing against 18 and 19-year olds, it’s quite a battle for them,” said Krzycki of his young pitchers. “I thought Brandon, Preston and Garrett all did an awesome job of pitching. Everybody did their job today and played a great game.”

Facing an older, more-talented North Platte team, things didn’t click quite as well for Colby on Sunday.

In game one, the Eagles had their chances to tie or take the lead, but couldn’t get timely hits.

Colby left runners in scoring position in the second, third, fourth and fifth innings.

The key play of the game occurred in the fifth with Colby trailing 6-4.

Rasmussen was at third with two outs and Arnberger hit a rope to second that looked like a sure hit, but North Platte’s Michael Cardenas stayed in front of the ball and made a tough, back-handed play to end the inning.

North Platte went on to break the game open in the seventh with a five-run inning. Rogers, who relieved Dinkel in the sixth, and Carter combined to give up all five runs.

After scoring two in the first, Colby could muster just two more runs off North Platte starter Cory Hergenrader. Hergenrader got stronger as the game went along, allowing just one hit in the final three innings.

Colby had only two hits in all of game two against North Platte’s Beau Bicknell. Schlick was tagged for nine runs in 4 1/3 innings as he took the loss for Colby.

“That’s an older team and I thought we responded well,” said Krzycki.

Colby (2-2) continues play Friday and Saturday at the Dodge City Tournament.
