Sweet Thunder 10 and under team wins first tournament

Sweet beginning for Sweet Thunder.

Colby's 10 and under softball team started the season by winning the Hays Tournament Sunday in Hays.

In pool play Saturday, Colby lost the first game to the Larned Renegades 4-2. Colby was led by Kylee Martin who was 1-3 with two RBIs. Martin pitched all five innings and had 12 strikeouts.

In the second game of the day, Colby beat the Ellis Lady Flames 13-6 led by Martin and Darby Sager who were both 2-2 with four RBIs. Martin, Tessa Krzycki and Brooklyn Bange pitched the three innings.

Colby won their last game Saturday 12-3 over the Hays Heat led by Sager (1-3 with a double and three RBIs). Martin pitched all four innings, had nine strikeouts and walked only one.

Sunday was the start of bracket play where Colby was seeded first. They played the Ellis Lady Flames again and won 16-7. Krzycki led the way going 2-2 with four RBIs and Taylor Lemman was 1-1 with four RBIs. Lemman also pitched all three innings and had seven strikeouts.

Sweet Thunder met up with the Larned Renegades in the Championship game and beat them again 8-2 led by Krzycki who was 2-3 with a double and two RBIs. Martin pitched the four innings and had eight strikeouts.

Speedway opens with excitement

By Eric Gaede

Thomas County Speedway

The recent wet weather made for excellent racing conditions as Brady Coen got his first win of the year in the modified series Sunday at the Thomas County Speedway.

Travis Scherfick in the stock class received his first trophy from Colby as did Brent Glassman in the hobby stock class. The next race will be a BST

IMCA modified event and a special driver will be in the field. Two time Nascar Busch Series champion Randy LaJoie will be racing at the Thomas County Speedway on Father's Day June

Brady Coen used a great start to get past local racers Jeff Tubbs and Nick Tubbs and then held off a last lap charge from Darrin Deloach to get the win in the modified division. DeLoach came in second, Jeff Tubbs third and Nick Tubbs fourth. Ronnie Hill was trying several lines to get around the Tubbs duo, but came up short and settled for fifth.

Drew Miller, in his second race at Colby in a Modified, came in Runnion came from the back of sixth.

Stock Cars

The stock class put on another excellent show as Travis Sherfick picked up his first win in Colby. Travis Towns nearly took the win away as he caught Scherfick on the last lap, but had to settle for Ryan Wark and Jason Rogers ran side by side for much of the race with Wark getting to the checkers for third and Rogers fourth. Marshall Hoppe was fifth with Adam Balthazor in sixth. Eleven cars started the main.

Hobby Stocks

Brent Glassman had a terrible outing at the last race, but came ter the green came back out. and finished fourth and Ricky the pack on a restart to finish fifth. Jeff Dody ran well in sixth and Allen Kurth had to pit for a flat tire and made it up the seventh. Thirteen Cars started the main.

Econos

A very scary crash caused a red flag for several minutes as rescue crews had to extract Adrienne West from her car.

Adrienne had jumped to the infield after making contact with another car and ran head-on into one of the rodeo chute pole's. Adrienne was taken to the hospital as a precaution and was released without any major injuries.

Chad Fields came out on top afback to win in his second race at enne's father, Alex West, came finished in the top five in his first Todd Pankonin survived a spin race at Colby. Fifteen cars started
