Show up, pick a side see what happens

No purchase necessary. caller.

There is no form to fill out. You won't be pressured into buying a timeshare in Branson.

All you do is show up and take win $232.

The Colby Free Press' Cointest will return July 4. It will be held during the High Plains Lions Club festivities at the Thomas County Fairgrounds 4-H building.

"It's a simple, fun and exciting game to play," said Free Press Publisher John Van Nostrand. "We will do it just like we did last year."

People interested in playing will guess what side a coin will land on. Those who think the coin will land heads, will stand on one side of the room. Those who think the coin will land tails, will stand on the opposite side of the room. Whatever side the coin lands, the people who guessed who guessed the other side are out ISHIN of the game.

United States has been in existence. The prize will be in the $1 presidential coins.

Participants do not have to pick a side — literally — at a chance to the same side of the coin for every round. People can change their mind as the game progresses.

> "That's where the drama of the game comes into play," Van Nostrand said.

> Depending upon size of the participants, the coin toss may be moved outside of the 4-H building.

> "We are hoping for lots of people to show up this year," Van Nostrand said.

> Van Nostrand is grateful of the High Plains Lions Club and their efforts for the Fourth of July. He wanted the paper to be included, somehow.

"The past few years the Lions have tried their best to offer something to that side will continue to play. Those Colby and area people on the Fourth of July. They have done a wonderful job of offering fun, family-friendly By the process of elimination, the things from hot dogs, watermelon last person still playing, will win and kids' games," Van Nostrand You don't have to be the fifth $232. The $232 amount is patriotic said. "That is why we chose to do - it's the same number of years the this during the Fourth of July last year. What the Lions Club does is a great thing to do before watching fireworks helped out by the Kiwanis Club, another great organization. I wanted the Free Press to be a part of all of that."

Tails never fails,

Lions Club activities are expected to begin at about 6:30 p.m. There will be plenty of notice of when Cointest will start.

"We will respect the Lions Club and give them time to get everybody fed and a chance for the kids to play the games for a while. That also gives time for more people to show up. Besides, I want to have a hot dog too," Van Nostrand said.

This year's Cointest is sponsored by Jim Oliver - Raymond James Financial Services; Daryl Henry - Edward Jones financial services; F&M Insurance and Colby radio stations KXXX and KRDQ.

"We can't thank those sponsors enough for helping us with Cointest," Van Nostrand said.
