The festival is part of a threeweek, five-stop trip from Mattel's headquarters in El Segundo, Calif, to Watkins Glen, N.Y., to mark the Hot Wheels anniversary.

Other stops are planned at the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah, the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Hall of Fame Museum in Indiana, and the Automotive Hall of Fame in Detroit.

The trip began Tuesday with an employee picnic in El Segundo, where between 2,000 and 2,500 people showed up.

Since then, Hot Wheels enthusiasts have been joining the growing caravan across the country. Several thousand are expected to Jackie Swatzell, director of the Phillipsburg Chamber of Commerce and coordinator of Need for Speed 2, said volunteers are "as ready as we'll ever" be for Sunday's onslaught of people.

"We've gotten calls from all over," she said.

Full-size Hot Wheels cars will be among items displayed. The road trip is the only chance people will have to see a custom jeweled Hot Wheels car worth about $140,000 that commemorates the production of the 4 billionth Hot Wheels vehicle. It contains nearly 3,000 diamonds, and will be auctioned off to benefit Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Los Angeles and the Inland Empire.
