The Colby High School girls' golf team took third place in its first tournament of the year Thursday, Aug. 28 hosted by Sublette at Santana.

The nine teams attending included Colby, Oakley, Liberal, Hugoton, Dodge City, Syracuse, Lakin, Holcomb and Sublette.

performance," said Colby High School Coach Rick Williams.

"We have been working really hard and have started to build higher and higher expectations, but this performance was just outstanding.'

Colby was awarded a medal for its third place team finish

Colby High School head coach girls golf "The girls turned in an amazing second; Syracuse, 230, fourth; Dodge City, 245, fifth; Sublette, 267, sixth, and a three-way tie for seventh for Oakley, Hugoton and Liberal teams.

"Placing third as a team at a tournament with this high level of in scores. Jessica Leiker with 48 competition is a great way to start the year," he said.

"We finished ahead of a couple with 217 strokes. First place went of the traditional powerhouses to Holcomb at 191; Lakin, 197, girls' golf programs in the western and placed the highest she has half of the state."

To beat Syracuse, who has won every tournament in the past four years, he said, was a great accomplishment for the team.

Rick Williams,

Two Colby girls made the top 10 was fifth and Kaylee Keck, 49, was tenth.

"Jessica (senior) posted the best score of her high school career ever placed at a tournament," Williams said.

Other Colby placers included Audra Fleming, 55; Kayla Sloan, 65; Michelle Schroder, 65; and Heather Griggs, 73.

"Sophomore Audra Fleming," he said, "posted the best score of her high school career as well by being seven strokes better than her previous best."

"Kaylee Keck (freshman) made a lot of people take notice of her skill by posting a sub-50 round in her first high school tourney and brought home a medal."

The team, Williams said, set individual score goals on their way to the tournament.

"Every girl on the team," he said, "met or exceeded their goals.
