The Colby High School Golf team finished second out of three teams in their home tournament Monday with an overall score of 242. Oakley finished first with 214 points.

Colby had three people receive individual medals at the tournament. Freshman sensation Kaylie Keck placed third in the tournament with a score of 55.

"Kaylee continues to have a good freshma year as she has gone to four varsity tournaments and has brought home four individual medals," Coach Rick Williams said. "There are not a lot of freshman who can say that."

Sophomore Audrey Fleming came in fifth with a score of 56.

"Audra played outstanding," Williams said. "She has really improved this year and posted a really good score,"

Senior Jessica Leikert finished seventh with 58.

Jordan Albers of Oakley had the best score of the tournament with a score of 41.

The team will be playing again on Thursday, Oct. 25 at Scott City.

Sophomore shines at Lindsborg meet

The Colby High girl's tennis team placed second at Lindsborg meets on Saturday, an improvement over the previous year when the team placed third.

The teams that competed at the meet included Baldwin City, Topeka Hayden, Parsons, Pratt, Marysville, Smoky Valley, Wichita Collegiate and Independence.

The dominant duo of senior Lindsey Wilson and sophomore Caitlyn Waric suffered their first loss of the season in No. 1 doubles taking second place with a record of 3-2.

Junior Barbara Bickner placed fourth in No. 1 singles. Sophomore Kate Hockersmith continued her winning ways by going 5-0 on the day and placing first in No. 2 singles.

"The girls really stepped up and they gave us an indication of what they need to work on," said Coach Jennifer Rall.

The results for the J.V. meet at Goodland were unavailable as of press time.

The Varsity team's next meet will be at Russell on Thursday, Sept. 25 at 1 p.m. They will also be competing at the Garden City meet on Saturday, Sept. 27.

Lady Trojans finish fifth at tournament

The Lady Trojans softball team finished 2-3 over the weekend at the North Platte Tournament. None of the games played this fall will count on the team's official record since games don't start counting until February.

Colby 's two wins this weekend included a 7-3 win over Western Nebraska and a 11-6 victory over Doane.

Marissa Elsberry was the winning pitcher in the Western Nebraska game. Peggy Nichols turned in a solid game going 3-4 with two runs batted in.

Logan Wark was the winning pitcher in the game against Doane. Kat Nickel led the team in hits going 2 for 3 in the game.

The Lady Trojans lost this weekend to York College, 7-4; Haskell, 12-11; and Chadron State 11-1.

Brittany Berndt went 2 for 3 against York College with 4 RBIs and Janey Rehrich went 2 for 4 with 3 RBIs including a home run.

Whitney Archer had the hot bat against Haskell going 3-4 with 5 RBIs including a home run and a double.

Coach Ryan Sturdy felt good about the way his team played overall this weekend.

"We scored enough runs to win each game but the Chadron game," he said. "We had some people step up and hit the ball consistently. Overall this was the best we played all fall."

The the team competes in the Lamar tournament this weekend where they will play seven games in all.

"We will work to improve this weekend for Lamar," Sturdy said.

The teams home tournament will start Saturday on Oct. 4.
