Colby couple attends leadership conference

Vincent and Tenley Glad, Colby, attended the Agricultural Leaders of Tomorrow conference of the National Farmers Organization for Region 5 on Aug. 8 and 9 in St. Joseph, Mo.

The Glads were chosen to attend the conference, which was partially paid for by the Institute for Rural America, because of their interest and participation in agricultural issues and leadership roles.

Topics covered included public service, marketing strategies for grain and livestock, parliamentary procedure, open meetings laws, agricultural consolidation, wind energy, water and cooperation among agricultural organizations.

After the two-day event, the Glads got certificates of completion.

Club news

By Hazel Duffey

The Colby Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary met Sept. 10 with Peggy Ohlrogge presiding.

Roll call of officers was read and an opening prayer offered, followed by patriotic instructions and the flag salute.

A prayer for those who are prisoners of war or missing in action was offered by the chaplain.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and the treasurer's report heard. Bills, presented for payment, were approved.

Letters from the district president were read informing the group of the district convention, to be held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 18, in Oakley at the VFW Post.

It's time to pay dues, the group was told. The $20 dues can be sent to Treasurer Rosalie Seeman at 426 Hall st., Levant, Kan. 67743.

The club chaplain reported the death of member Iveda Hafferdtz.

The Community Service chairman reported plans for Make a Difference Day, Saturday, Oct. 25.

The chairman read a list of community service projects the club has done including recycling, food for Genesis, helping with Lions Club picnic, crocheted caps and booties made for RSVP, prayer chain, Rosary service on the first week of month at Colby Care Home and Daughters of Isabella

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Circle of the Daughters of Isabella met in the church basement on Sept. 4.

Ceanne Rinehart called the meeting to order and the opening ode was sung and pledge of allegiance made by the group.

Loretta Zerr and Laura Krejci passed pictures around and talked about the trip they took Aug. 3-6 to St. Louis for the Daughters of Isabella National Convention.

There were 611 members attending, including 61 from Kansas, the state with the largest attendance.

Zerr modeled a yellow neck scarf and sunflower pin she had worn. The Kansas delegates were easily identified because of these, she said. She bought a book about the history of the group from 1897-2007 and presented it to the circle so anyone can check it out to read.

Joan Albers urged people to pray that God's will be done in the upcoming election.

Treasurer Rhonda Rogers is moving to Oakley and would like to have someone take over her job, although she will continue to belong to our circle.

A fund raiser was discussed. January was mentioned and biscuits and gravy with fruit for breakfast after Mass was suggested.

The obligation was said as a group, the closing ode sung and the meeting adjourned.

Marge Mowry and Louise Dougherty served chocolate cupcakes and ice cream.

Next month's meeting will be a gourmet supper.

VFW Auxilliary

Prairie Senior Center, birthday and sympathy cards sent, help at the 4th of July barbecue at the nursing home and helped prepare mailings for Senior Citizen Center.

The publicity chairman reported that an item was taken to the Colby Free Press on Aug. 18 but had not yet been in the paper. She said she had contacted the paper about it.

The president reported that Patriotic Art, Patriotic Pen and Voice of Democracy information had been sent to the local schools.

The Cancer Aid and Research chairman read information about research mammograms being done for breast cancer.

Finding someone to fill the treasurer's position was discussed.

The charter was draped per ritual in memory of Iveda. Hafferdtz and donations made to cancer aid and research were done as a memorial.

A decision was made for each member to do something for Make a Difference Day and report it to the Community Service chairman.

A letter about the Smithsonian Institute museum was read. John Smithson, an Englishman, willed $508 million in gold coins to start the museum.

District Officer Luetta Scott will make her annual inspection visit at the October meeting. A sandwich and dessert supper will follow the meeting.

The club will donate to the Fort Dodge Soldiers Home and the Winfield Veterans Home for entertainment expenses.

Due to inflationary costs, prices for Bingo night snacks were changed. Candy bars will be 75 cents; crackers, 50 cents; and sandwiches and chips will stay the same.

A donation was made for the Make a Child Smile program for children in cancer treatment.

The national home prayer was offered and the meeting closed with the ritual prayer.

The next meeting will be at 5 p.m. Wednesday at the post home.

Corrections

In the article about the Truck Convoy featured on the front page of the Colby Free Press on Monday, Sept. 22, Gary Wingfield was named as one of the local truckers who helped prepare for this years event. The correct name is George Wingfield. This was a reporting error

Thursday, Sept. 25, it was incorrectly printed the Coronado Area Council, Boys Scouts of America was based in Hays. It is actually based in Salina. This was a reporting error.

The Colby Free Press wants to maintain an accurate record of our town. Please report any error or lack of clarity in a news story to us at 462-3963.
