A story in the Friday, Oct. 10 issue of the Colby Free Press, "City OKs loan for building," said Embarq Healthcare Inc. would be moving into the building at 455 N. Franklin Avenue that "used to house Inlow Interiors." Inlow Interiors is not closed, said owner Donna. It is still open and will be relocating to a new location in Colby in January. This was a reporting error.

A story, "States buying water rights along creek," in the Monday, Oct. 13, issue of the Colby Free Press incorrectly attributed several statements to "Scott." This information came from Steve Frost, state water conservation manager. This was a reporting error.
