Students collect, sort food

Genesis-Thomas County Food Bank and anyone who receives a holiday food basket will benefit from the efforts of Colby Community College students, faculty and staff members this season.

The nursing students were challenged last month by students at Cloud County Community College to see which school could collect the most items for the local Genesis chapter.

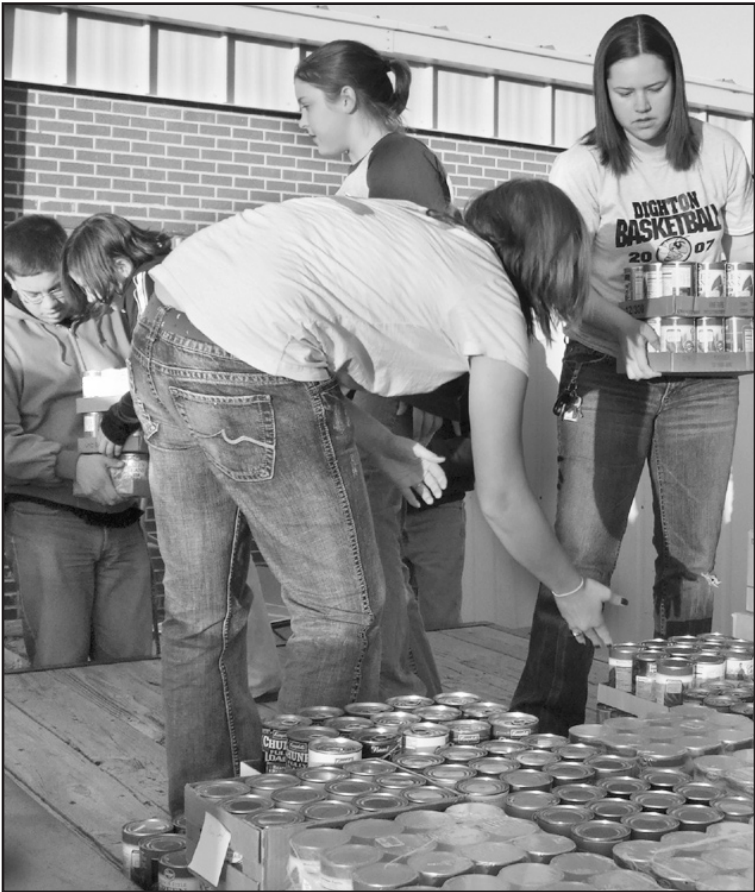

Colby students collected 2,561 items which were given to Genesis-Thomas County. The Concordia school reported having about 400 items.

"We were so pleased with the response to the challenge," said Skip Sharp, vice-president of student affairs. "Genesis is a great benefit to many in the community, and the generosity of our students, faculty and staff members was overwhelming."

In addition to collecting items for Genesis, students loaded and transported food for holiday baskets from the Genesis office to the 4-H building.

"We had over 65 students who signed up to help with the loading of the items," said Carolyn May. "Forty students began the process on Tuesday, Dec. 9, at 5 p.m. We had an additional 25 who were scheduled to help at 5:30 p.m. Students from the social sciences division, the men's and women's track teams, therapeutic massage, education majors and many others volunteered

"Because the process went so smoothly and we had so many volunteers, the moving process was complete by 5:30 p.m."

More than 20 students worked on Saturday, Dec. 13, to help assemble the holiday baskets at the 4-H building.

In addition to the Genesis project, the Student Senate sponsored the annual Angel Tree. Each "angel" represented a resident of a Colby long-term care facility. With the participation of many students, faculty and staff members, the Senate was able to provide a gift for each resident.

The men's basketball team delivered the gifts to the homes.

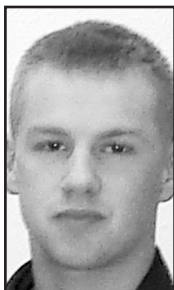

Academic team aims for first

The Academic Excellence Challenge Team at Colby Community College is off to a great start in the pursuit of their fourth state championship title.

The team, coached by Nikol Nolan and Krista Carter, took first place Dec. 6 at the "Snow Bowl" in Hutchinson.

Members Drew Ziegler, Leduc, Alberta, Canada; Jessica Chelewski, Sutton, Neb.; Zach Semenza, Great Falls, Mont.; Sarah Borneman, Edson; and Katy Hall, Rolla, won the competition, defeating Allen County Community College in the finals.

Colby sophomore Katy Hall was recognized as Individual High Point Person. She finished with a total of 300 points, competing in seven of the eight rounds, an average of 43 points per round.

years," said Nolan. "Our goal is to become the first team in the state to win the championship four years in a row."

Twelve teams from nine colleges competed at the Hutchinson event. The Colby team went 7-1 for the day, losing the first round to Allen County.

"The continuing success of our Academic Challenge Team is exceptional," said college President Lynn Kreider. "In addition to being extraordinary students, four of the five team members are athletes."

"All of the participants are very active in campus organizations and community projects."

The next competition for the team is the regional meet on March 28.

International students given a feast

Members of the Kansas National Education Association Student Program group at Colby Community College pulled an all-nighter the weekend of Dec. 6.

The future teachers' group worked overnight to prepare a holiday dinner for international students and their friends.

"It was a great success," said sponsor Carolyn May. "The club members worked all night to prepare everything for the dinner on Saturday, Dec. 6."

"We are so grateful for the help of several Colby businesses. Montana Mike's donated 120 dinner rolls, Wal Mart gave us $100 and the Village Inn contributed pies."

The college has about 30 international students this semester. Countries represented include Canada, Brazil, Trinidad and Tobago, Uzbekistan, Holland, Kenya, Mongolia and Spain.

Executive committee members of the future teachers are Janna Colson, Hoxie, president; Jessica Horinek, Atwood, vice president; Amanda Bentley, Prairie Village, secretary; Stephanie Juenemann, Tonya Nero and her sister, Scarla Nero, students from Trinidad and Tobago, were among international students who enjoyed a home-cooked holiday dinner on Dec. 6.
