

Volunteer boards deserve a gift of thanks for their work

This week, the library had its annual luncheon to recognize volunteers who serve the library and therefore the community.

Five serve regularly. Each has been given a book or digital disk that was added to the library as a memorial for their service.

• Joanne Brown fills our front planters with wonderful flowers in the spring, summer and fall. She waters them week in and week out. We have placed in the library the new book "Wreath and Boutiques" by Paula Pryke and Sarah Cuttle.

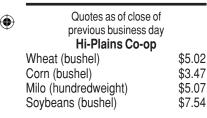

• Margene Griffin clips coupons and brings them by for our patrons. People often stop at the library before shopping to pick up the latest coupons. We have placed in the library the book "The Gingerbread Architect: Recipes and Blueprints for Twelve Classic American Homes" by Susan Matheson and Lauren Chattman.

• Mary B. Smith waters, fertilizes and cares for our indoor plants. She also helps recycle paper, cardboard and many other items at the library. We have placed in from the library staff and librarythe library the new book "Swedish Christmas Crafts" by Helene Lundberg.

• Akaylah Trundle, a high school student, donates a couple of hours each week. She has learned to perform many activities at the library, such as: helping with bulletin boards, reshelving items, helping patrons with check-in- and checkout needs, straightening the magazines and sorting books for sale. We have placed in her name the new disk edition of "The Chronicles of Narnia: Prince Caspian," a Walt Disney Production.

• Lucy Davis donates large-print books written by the most popular authors, as well as Christian fiction. This helps our patrons who have trouble reading regular print. We have placed in the library the book "Antique Santa Claus Col-

Other important volunteers to the Pioneer Memorial Library are the board members: Patrick Toth, Donna Henry, Rick Ress, Mike Wien, Lisa Wilson, James Mardock and Maradith Molstad. They provide guidance and governance for the Pioneer Memorial Library.

The board approves the budget and works with the library staff through the year. Trustees support the library by seeing that it meets the community's needs and is run efficiently and judiciously. It is a volunteer position. The only benefit they receive from this work is attending 7 a.m. meetings on the third Tuesday of the month, seeing satisfied patrons in the library, and a wonderful thank you and smile users

Another volunteer board runs the support group, Friends of the Library. Its members are Ralph Fischer, Ann Miner, Marvin Bickner, Relda Galli, Mary L. Smith, Ed McCart and Amie Kendrick. Their mission is to support the library by providing extra income from fund-raising projects.

This group enthusiastically tells others about the library. They, too, have the benefit of attending 7 a.m. meetings on the second Tuesday of the month and planning their projects. They conduct the adopt-a-magazine drive, Murder Mystery, "A Day in the Life of Year's Day and return to normal Thomas County, and many other hours Friday, Jan. 2.

MIHARN

They help us with grants and other special needs. They are a real encouragement to us. Thank them when you see them.

My hat is off to all these volunteers. The library would not be what it is today with out these wonderful people. These and those before them have made us what we are today.

A gift from right now is the Food for Fines campaign. If you have an overdue fine for books, audiobooks, DVDs or videos, go to the front desk, tell the librarian your name and that you wish to give food for your fines. We will have you put the food in a wicker basket trimmed in holiday material

Remember to tell the librarian; do not just place food in the basket, or you will not get the credit. We will then donate those canned goods to Genesis-Thomas County food bank.

The Food for Fines campaign began Monday and ends on Tuesday.

The library changes its schedule a bit during Christmas and New Year's weeks.

We will be open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday, then closed on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

After Christmas, the library will be open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday, Dec. 26; from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 27, and from l p.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 28. Monday and Tuesday of New Year's, Dec. 29, we'll be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. New Year's Eve. The library will be closed New
