The Colby High wrestling team added to their already impressive season by finishing first at the Beloit tournament last weekend. The Eagles had four wrestlers finish first in their weight classes. They were senior Tanner Kriss, 215; senior Breck Aramberger, 171; junior Nathan Reed, 112; and freshman Konner Kriss in the 103 pound class. Tanner and Aramberger's first place finishes kept both of their undefeated streaks intact. "Both of them have the drive to be the best," said Matt Sims. "They both have spent a lot of time in the weight room." Sims shared what he thought were the strengths of two wrestlers. "People describe Brett as a machine," he said. "He refuses to quit. Tanner is so athletic and quick. His speed and power are his strengths." Sims had good things to say about the progress Konner has made this year. "He's having a great year," he said. "He gets better every week." There were 18 teams who competed at the Beloit tournament. Clay Center and Smith Center finished second and third respectively. In other action senior Treat Bugbee was the runner up in the 189 pound class. Senior Adam Weber placed third in the 285 pound class and sophomore Andrew Flanagin finished third at 160 pounds.

Guard gets a triple double, Trojans pound Blue Dragons

Freshman Shamar Acuay waved his towel and fired up the crowd after the Trojans 73-50 victory over Hutchinson on Sunday. And he had good reason to celebrate. Acuay had just put on a basketball clinic free of charge for the fans attending the game. He was everywhere on the court grabbing rebounds, draining jumpers, picking players pockets and showing off his otherworldly leaping abilities by making acrobatic layups that left defenders asking themselves what the heck happened. Acuay scored 38 points, grabbed 20 boards and had 10 steals while leading Colby to a 73-50 victory over the Blue Dragons. Sophomore Erick Peguero added 10 points. The Trojans jumped on Hutch early, starting the game with a 12-2 run over the game's first five minutes. Hutch slowly chipped away at the lead, and closed with in two at 19-17. Sophomore Erick Peguero stymied the Blue Dragons' rally by hitting two three-pointers to extend the Trojans' lead to 25-19. Acuay nailed a three-pointer with 3:52 remaining in the half to give Colby a 33-22 lead. A few moments later Acay seemed to be suspended in the air while burying a shot from the free-throw line. The Trojans continued to broaden their lead later in the half when Acuay split the defense and made an acrobatic looking lay-up while drawing contact from a Blue Dragon defender. He hit the free throw, increasing Colby's lead to 42-25. The Trojans led 44-29 at the half. Colby looked sharp defensively ito star the second half as they prevented Hutchinson from getting off any easy shots. The team received a big scare when Acuay held his shoulder in pain while the rest of the Trojans ran down court to play defense with less than nine minutes remaining in the game. A time-out was called and Acuay would return when play resumed despite being in obvious pain. He played through the pain and appeared to be back to normal a few minutes later. The Trojans' defense continued to thwart the Blue Dragons' offensive attack holding Hutchinson to 28 percent shooting in the half. The victory offered the team a brief respite for a season that has been filled with disappointment and frustration. It was a big win for the Trojans. The Blue Dragons were no pushovers. Hutchinson went into the game 15-4 and 4-2 in Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference's Western Division. The win improved the Trojans' record to 4-17 and 2-5 in the western division. Colby takes on Barton County at 8 p.m. tonight at Great Bend.

Lady Wildcats defeat Cornhuskers

MANHATTAN (AP) — Ashley Sweat scored 18 points and No. 14 Kansas State rallied from a half-time deficit to beat Nebraska 51-40 on Tuesday night. Shalin Spani made three 3-pointers during a crucial second-half run for the Wildcats (18-1, 5-1 Big 12), who only trailed in the second half one other time this season. Cory Montgomery led the Huskers (10-9, 1-5) with a game-high 21 points. Nebraska controlled the first half, briefly yielding the lead to Kansas State before Montgomery scored all of the points in a 9-2 run on the way to a 23-21 halftime lead. But after Montgomery scored two points to open the second half, the Wildcats went on a 24-6 run to go ahead 45-31.
