‘Who-Dunit’ coming

The Colby High Drama II class will be presenting the play "The Great High School WhoDunit" at 7 p.m. on Thursday, March 26, in the school auditorium.

The forensics team will have a donation soup supper before the show from 5:30-6:45 p.m. in the commons area and a dessert buffet during intermission.

The show is a audience participation murder mystery play written by Eileen Moushey. As the audience enters, they become students at fictional Dudley High, gathered at an assembly for the wealthy Dudley family. Things rapidly go wrong when Mrs. Dudley's fabulous ring is stolen. Now the "students" must unmask the thief and find the ring.

During the intermission, there'll be dessert and a clue hunt. After the the break, the play will resume and the mystery will be resolved.

Help solve the mystery. Tickets available at the door, from cast members or at the high school office at $4 for adults and $2 for students.

Deaths

Beverly E. Way

Longtime Goodland resident Beverly E. Way, 81, died Friday, March 6, 2009, at Goodland Regional Medical Center.

She was born May 24, 1927, at Kansas City, Mo., the daughter of Walter and Mary (Taylor) Coon. She attended schools in Cheyenne and Sherman counties, graduating with the class of 1944 from Sherman Community High School in Goodland.

In 1945, she and Dale Way married in Goodland. They lived on a farm north of Goodland until 1995, when they moved into town.

Beverly was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary. She enjoyed crocheting, playing bingo and going to garage sales.

Preceding her in death were her parents and her husband.

Surviving family include a daughter, Connie (Jim) Peterson of Manhattan; a son, Curtis (Marcia) Way of Goodland; and four grandchildren.

Services were at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, March 10, 2009, at the Koons Chapel in Goodland, with Pastor Brian Fugleberg officiating and burial in the Goodland Cemetery.

Visitation was Monday at the chapel.

The family suggests contributions to Hospice Services of Sherman County or to the Alzheimer's Association, in care of the funeral home, 211 N. Main, Goodland, Kan., 67735-1555.

Riders form chapter

The Colby post of the Kansas American Legion Riders became the 67th organized in the state with the election of officers on Feb. 22.

Colby American Legion Commander Donnie Morton, riders from Garden City and Utica and others attended, 39 people in all.

During the meeting, 25 American Legion, Sons of the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary members signed on to become the founding members of the motorcycle group.

Alan Hagans, area director from Utica, installed the elected officers. Director C.W. Hamilton II opened the meeting with Tom Jones, co-director; Jim Oliver, secretary-treasurer; and Nick Quenzer, sergeant-at-arms, assisting. C.D. Hopper is chaplain, Jay Gordon, membership chair, and Jeff Griffin, communications chair.

Membership is open to anyone owning a motorcycle with at least a 250cc engine who is a current member of any American Legion, Sons of the American Legion or the auxiliary post, by paying $12 yearly dues.

The Riders group was formed in the fall of 1993 at Garden City, Mich. Kansas formed its first group in 2001 at Mulvane. The Patriot Guard was also formed at Mulvane, in the summer of 2005. The purpose of the Legion Riders is to promote and support the programs of the Legion, including participation in parades, charity events, veterans issues, while providing a social, family-oriented atmosphere.

Meetings of the Colby Riders will be at 2 p.m. the second Sunday of each month at the Legion hall. Anyone interested in the group is invited. Membership information and applications for all Legion groups will be available.

Colby Comets 4-H Club

The 4-H building was a hive of activity on Feb. 9 as the Colby Comets and all the other 4-H clubs in Thomas County met to put together pizzas for their largest yearly fund raiser.

After the pizzas were made, Kathy Lindberg and Angela Zimmerman sorted them into boxes for delivery be the Comets.

A special thanks to Linda Taylor, who organized the materials and her time to help with this project. Special thanks also goes to Elaine Bremenkamp and Donna Lamm, who were the main chairpersons this year. And for everyone else, too numerous to name, thank you for your help to keep 4-H strong and viable in Thomas County.
