Rochester, Minn., after winning the West Central District team championship.

The Trojans also received the National Junior College Athletic Association Award for having the highest cumulative grade average in the history of the organization. The team's average was 3.46, equivalent to a B+.

Lampe has won several awards during his career, including the Lifetime Service to Wrestling Award (2003), eight-time West Region Coach of the Year, junior college Man of the Year (1998), and junior college Coach of the Year (1984, 1999). The Lifetime Service Award was given by the National Wrestling Hall of Fame Committee and the other three awards were given by the junior college's coaching association.
