Heartland football squad defeats Northern Valley

The Heartland Christian High School defeated Northern Valley, located in Almena, 32-22 Monday at their home field located behind the high school.

“We competed well despite being outsized by the other team,” said Coach Jesse Vincent.

The win improved the team’s record to 2-0.

Senior Daniel Grace caught ten-yard touchdown pass and returned a fumble 50 yards for a touchdown.

Junior Clint Goosen caught two touchdown passes. His first touchdown was an 18-yard reception and his second touchdown came off a screen pass. Junior quarterback Tyler Bear hit Goosen with the short pass and Goosen turned it into a 46-yard touchdown.

Bear also scored a touchdown on a three yard quarterback sneak.

The Crusaders hammered the Weskan junior varsity team 44-18 on Sept. 14.

They will play Cheylin at 5:30 p.m. next Monday at Bird City.

Lady Trojans golfers take second in home meet

The Colby Community College’s women’s golf team captured second place at its home 27-hole conference tournament at Atwood Country Club last Sunday and Monday with 638 points overall. It was the first conference tourney of the season for the team.

Freshman Chelsie Gausman of Goodland took fourth place after shooting a 144. She shot a 46 on the first nine holes and a 98 on the next 18 holes. Gausman was followed by freshman Alicia Allen who shot a 160 and freshman Jessica Leiker of Colby who finished with a 164. Allen shot 53 on the first nine and a 107 on the next 18 holes. Leiker also shot a 53 on the front nine and she shot a 111 on the next 18.

Other Lady Trojans scores include sophomore Alex Owens shooting a 170 and sophomore Holly Kibel finishing with a 173, Dodge City Community College placed first with 564 points. The other two teams that participated in the tournament were Barton and Coffeyville Community Colleges.

The Lady Trojans will be competing in a conference tournament on Sunday, Oct. 4 and Monday, Oct. 5 at Coffeyville Community College.

Crusaders volleyball team crushes Cheylin in two sets

The Heartland High School varsity volleyball team defeated Cheylin last Friday (25-22, 25-16) in Bird City.

The win improved the team’s record to 5-4.

The girls competed in a quad on Sept. 8 at Golden Plains High School. The other teams who participated were Triplains and Greeley County.

The girls beat Greeley County (25-11, 25-23) and Triplains (18-25, 25-15, 25-21).

They Lady Crusaders lost to Golden Plains (25-21, 25-13).

The varsity team consists of seven players. They include junior setters Ariel Regier and Rachel Myers and senior setter Tiffany Wilson, senior on-hand hitters Mary Beth Myers and Danielle Mazanec, freshman middle hitter Alexi Regier and sophomore middle hitter Jade Kruse. They are coached by Melissa Regier.

The girls next match will be at 4 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 29 at Golden Plains High School in Rexford.

Kansas City loses to Red Sox 10-3; Royals give away six unearned runs

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Head congested, body weak, sneezes machine-gunning from his nose, Clay Buchholz figured it was going to be a tough night.

Turned out to be just like the rest of his outings over the past two months.

Buchholz shook off a head cold to take a shutout into the seventh inning, and David Ortiz homered and drove in three runs to help the Boston Red Sox move closer to the postseason with a 10-3 win over the Kansas City Royals on Thursday night.

“I was expecting to have to battle through, especially after the first inning,” Buchholz said after his second scoreless outing this season. “I threw some good pitches that got hit, left some pitches up and was able to bounce back the next inning and got on a pretty good roll.”

So are the Red Sox.

Boston had 15 hits and has won 12 of 15, lowering its magic number for clinching the AL wild card to three. The Red Sox did it, as usual, with production throughout the lineup.

Ortiz hit his second homer in two games in the fourth inning, added a two-run single in the ninth. Jacoby Ellsbury had four hits and two RBIs. Victor Martinez extended his hitting streak to 23 games and Dustin Pedroia pushed his to 16 games.

Next up? A weekend road series against the AL East-leading Yankees.

Royals starter Anthony Lerew (0-1) had a solid return to the majors and Billy Butler hit a two-run homer for Kansas City. The rest of the Royals unraveled around them with five errors — two by short-stop Yuniesky Betancourt — six unearned runs and two ejections.

It’s nothing new: Kansas City has 110 errors, second-worst in the AL.

Buchholz (7-3) has solidified his spot in Boston’s postseason rotation, going 6-0 over his last eight starts after an uneven start to the season.

The right-hander shook off the effects of a head cold that started Tuesday, retiring 13 straight batters after working out of a two-on, one-out jam in the first inning. He allowed five hits and struck out eight with no walks in 6 2-3 innings.

The Royals gave Buchholz plenty of help with a flurry of errors and ejections.

Third baseman Mark Teahen had a fielding error in the third that led to a run, then Betancourt booted one in the fourth that allowed Mike Lowell to score. Pedroia later added a sacrifice fly to put Boston up 4-0.

Betancourt had another fielding error in the eighth that scored a run and second baseman Alberto Callaspo had one in the ninth for another run that put Boston up 8-3.

It was Kansas City’s first five-error game since Sept. 6, 2002, against Seattle.
