nessman, Rod Cooper, is the Dr. A.C. Gulick House at 120 W. 12th. The home was built in the early 1900s with 10 rooms, and had electric lights, bath, hot water heat and sleeping porch.

The house and outbuildings, including a fountain, carriage house and gazebo, have been restored and the yard is landscaped. The house is available for weddings.

Another feature of Goodland is a bricked Main Avenue. The town has maintained and replaced some of the bricks. Some of the side streets are also bricked.
