

KEVIN BOTTRELL/Colby Free Press

Twenty alumni and one principal will be inducted into the High Flying Eagles: CHS Wall of Honor at a reception at 2 p.m. Friday at the museum. Plaques with photos and short biographies of each inductee are posted in the museum along with the inductees from the 2005 reunion.

Opera star will sign books at Eagles reception Friday

Samuel Ramey fans will be able to purchase his new biography "Great Voices Series: Samuel Ramey, American Bass," at 2:30 p.m. Friday, June 18, following the High Flying Eagle Reception at the Prairie Museum. Ramey will be on hand to sign books.

The book, written by Jane Scovell, includes 80 pages of photographs, an audio disc and a "Sound Bites" section written by Ramey himself.

Ramey is a Colby native and graduate of Colby High School who has gone on to international stardom as a bass opera singer.

Welcome Colby High ALUMNI!

Open:
4 - 8 p.m.,
Tues - Thurs.
4 - 9 p.m.
Fri & Sat.

1100 W. 4th • Colby • 462-9977

Located at Southwind Plaza • Colby, KS
785-460-6080

High Flying Eagles CHS Wall of Honor Reception

Friday, June 18 • 2 PM

Prairie Museum of Art and History • 1905 S. Franklin

Come see the wonderful alumni exhibit:

Forty Feet of Orange & Black: CHS 2010 Reunion Exhibit

9-5 • M-F 1-5 • Sat. & Sun.

Thomas County Historical Society
1905 S. Franklin * Colby, KS 67701
785 460-4590

priariem@st-tel.net
www.prairiemuseum.org

Welcome 2010 Colby High Alumni!

While on your beer run, stop by and check out our beer specials!

Lobo
Griffin LLC
RETAIL LIQUOR
260 E. 4th • Downtown Colby, KS
785-462-6832

