The Colby High wrestling team dominated Hoxie 47-18 in a dual on Friday at the high school gym.

Coach Matt Sims said he thought the dual had gone well.

"It was good to close out league play undefeated," he said.

Senior Nathan Reed beat the Indians' Calvin Ochs 10-5 in the first real match of the evening at 112 pounds.

Sophomore Konnor Kriss scored a takedown on Matt Heim of Hoxie to take a quick 2-0 lead at 119. Kriss led 6-1 at the end of the first period. He pinned Heim in the second.

Freshman Quade Woofter got a takedown to go up 2-0 on Chris Heim of Hoxie at 125. He maintained his lead for the rest of the period. Heim got Woofter in a cradle and exposed his shoulders for five seconds to take a 3-2 lead. Quade responded by scoring the next four points to win 7-3.

Sims said that was the first time Woofter had ever beaten Chris Heim.

"He's been working really hard in practice," he said.

Sophomore Dalton Snyder beat the Indians' Steven Yergey 3-1 at 135, scoring two points on a take-down in the final seconds of the third period to pick up the win. Junior Brandon Leth pinned Britton Sealock of Hoxie in the second period at 140.

"He's a really tough kid," said Sims.

Senior Torey Taylor dominated P.J. Carter of Hoxie at 160, winning a technical fall.

Junior George Smollock beat the Indians' Kane Washington 7-2 at 189. Smollock scored a take-down to go up 2-0. Washington got a point off an escape to make it 2-1 in the first period. Later in the second, Smollock got a reverse to go up 5-1. He went on to win 7-2.

Senior Adam Weber, sophomore Clayton Appelhans and freshmen Dustin Reed, Nathan's younger brother, won by forfeit at 215, 171 and 103.

Junior Kaid Wark lost to the Indians' Clayton Schamberger 5-3 at 145 and senior Ethan Stickel was beaten by Dylan Bainter 7-4 at 152. Sophomore Nathan Quagliano was pinned by Dillion Salmons of Hoxie at 285.

Colby will wrestle at regionals at 2 p.m. Friday at Pratt High School. They will begin again at 11 p.m. Saturday.

Former St. Louis slugger now a coach

JUPITER, Fla. (AP) — Mark McGwire's No. 25 jersey is ready for duty again, hanging outside his locker stall in the St. Louis Cardinals' spring training clubhouse.

The most controversial batting instructor in the major leagues was due to arrive in Jupiter late Tuesday and could be on the field as early as Wednesday, the date for pitchers and catchers to report for St. Louis.

Several of his pupils are already here, including second baseman

Skip Schumaker, who is among a handful of Cardinals familiar with McGwire's passion for hitting after offseason workouts in California.

He's perhaps McGwire's biggest booster on the team, having worked with the slugger he grew up idolizing since 2005.
