Program to feature Colby athletics book

The featured speaker for the noon Food for Thought program Thursday at the Prairie Museum of Art and History will be Gary Adrian, who will talk about his book, "Flight of the Eagles: A History of Colby High School Sports," a compilation of athletic statistics, records and selected photos from 1902 to May 2010.

Adrian created the publication, which features the history and highlights of 15 sports, to coincide with the end of the Northwest Kansas League era for Colby High activities. Included are photographs of championship teams, individual state champions and

"12-letter" athletes, as well as comments from members of state championship teams.

Pre-publication orders are being taken, but the book will not be printed until early June, after the conclusion of the softball, baseball and track seasons.

It will be available before the Colby High School Alumni Reunion in June, and copies will be available. Proceeds will go toward construction of a building at Dennen Field to house restrooms, home and visitor locker rooms and equipment storage for football and track.
