Deaths

Ralph L. Aschenbrenner

Graveside services for Father Ralph L. Aschenbrenner, 74, formerly of Colby, will be at 10 a.m. Monday, May 10, 2010, at the Sacred Heart Cemetery in Colby, with Father Dana Clark officiating.

He was born Oct. 1, 1935, in Colby, the son of Philip and Rose (Schuster) Aschenbrenner, and died Tuesday, April 27, 2010 at the Harry Hines Hospice at Via Christ-St. Francis Medical Center.

He was preceded in death by his parents, four sisters, and three brothers.

Survivors include a brother, Richard Aschenbrenner of Lawrence; and a sister, Dorothy Stephens of Wichita.

The family suggests memorials to the Clergy Health and Retirement Fund of the diocese in care of Harrison Chapel, Box 734, Colby Kan., 67701.

Abilene Hustlers 4-H Club

After Junior President Chance Hoeting called the Abilene Hustlers 4-H Club meeting to order on May 3, Josh Koon led the club in the flag salute.

Twelve members answered roll call by telling the initials of their name.

The secretary, Jory Koon, read the minutes of the last meeting and gave a parliamentary tip.

A guest, Jonathan Ortner, will be joining the club.

Rachel Lamm, county 4-H council representative, announced that 4-H'ers in each age division – junior, intermediate and senior – who receive grand champion awards at the fair this year will receive “hoodies,” hooded sweat-shirts.

Secretary Koon read a thank you letter from the Kansas 4-H Foundation for the donation.

Donna Lamm, community leader, announced that the 4-H Council wants ideas and suggestions for dates for a family fun night. She also reminded the club that small animal weigh-in for the fair will be May 6. She said the club will be having its own club float in the fair parade in place of a county float.

Cassie Wells gave a project talk about her Holland Lop bunnies.

The club had recreation and repeated the 4-H flag salute before adjourning.

Next meeting will be at 7 p.m. on Monday, June 7, at the 4-H building.
