Bridge players’ marathon raises money for scholarships

The Thomas County American Association of University Women have been playing bridge for a reason for 30 years now, raising money for scholarships for Thomas County women. The amount generated from the group’s annual bridge marathon has reached $20,000, which has gone to help women pursue a college education. Naomi Ward, publicity chair for the fall-to-spring event, said the organization expects the teams from the 2009-2010 season play again this year, but new teams are always welcome. “Any bridge players who might be interested ... can get a partner, pay $20 and play once a month from September through May,” Ward said. “Teams need to be registered by Saturday, Aug. 28.” The teams play at each other’s homes and call the scores in to either Ward or Sandy Harper. Call Ward at (785) 462-7840 or Harper at 462-3759 to register.
